Consultative Notices

University College: revised statutes

The Committee on Statutes before the Privy Council, acting under authority delegated to it by Council, is minded to give consent on behalf of the University to the revised statutes of University College, approved by the Governing Body on 17 June 2015, in so far as such consent is required by section 7 (2) of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923. The consent of the committee to the amendments to the statutes will be effective 12 days after publication unless written notice of a resolution, signed by at least 20 members of Congregation and calling upon Council to withhold that consent, has been given to the Registrar by noon on 2 November.

The revised statutes constitute a comprehensive revision and modification of the previous statutes following the college's registration with the Charity Commission in 2011 and a review of the college's governance and administrative arrangements. In particular, the effects of the amendments include: (i) to formally state the college's charitable objects in its governing document; (ii) to identify the college's charity trustees; (iii) to rationalise and update the provisions relating to fellowships; (iv) to establish appropriate procedures for managing conflicts of interest; (v) to introduce a remuneration committee to oversee trustee benefits, including remuneration and other benefits provided to members of the governing body and fellows of the college; (vi) to extend the college's powers to amend trusts which have been established for more than 60 years (within the scope of the powers granted under section 8 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923); and (vii) to introduce a power to adopt a total return approach to investment.
