Changes to Examination Regulations 2012

Medical Sciences Board

Approved: 26th October 2012

Title of Programme: Biomedical Sciences (the examinations concerned include the Honour School of Cell & Systems Biology and the Honour School of Neuroscience).

Brief note about nature of change: To clarify examining and marking arrangements for Final Honour Schools with shared elements.

Effective date: With immediate effect

Location of change: Examination Regulations 2012

Details of change:

1. In Examination Regulations, 2012, p. 164, after l. 22, insert on a new line:

   ‘7. For the Part I options provided by the Department of Experimental Psychology, candidates shall be examined by such of the Public Examiners in the Honour School of Experimental Psychology as may be required. For the written papers in Part II which are as specified for the Honour School of Medical Sciences, and the Research Project, candidates shall be examined by such of the Public Examiners in the Honour School of Medical Sciences as may be required.

2. Ibid., re-number existing cll. 7-8 as cll. 8-9 respectively.

3. In Examination Regulations, 2012, p. 380, after l. 20, insert on a new line:

   ‘7. For the Part I options provided by the Department of Experimental Psychology, and the Part II advanced options which are as specified for Part II of the Honour School of Experimental Psychology, candidates shall be examined by such of the Public Examiners in the Honour School of Experimental Psychology as may be required. For the written papers in Part II which are as specified for the Honour School of Medical Sciences, and the Research Project, candidates shall be examined by such of the Public Examiners in the Honour School of Medical Sciences as may be required.

4. Ibid., re-number existing cll. 7-8 as cll. 8-9 respectively.

Explanatory Notes
The Honour School examinations for Cell & Systems Biology and for Neuroscience contain... elements which are shared with other Honour School examinations. These additional regulations make provision for Examiners from one Honour School to mark scripts and coursework for candidates entered for a different Honour School, where papers are shared across the two examinations.
