

HUMANITIES DIVISIONAL BOARD
Title of Programme	FHS European and Middle Eastern Languages
Brief note about nature of change:	Amendments to the Extended Essay.
Effective date	With immediate effect
Location of change	In Examination Regulations online, FHS European and Middle Eastern Languages
1.66	(i) The subject of every essay shall, to the satisfaction of the boards of the faculties, fall within the scope of the Honour Schools of Modern Languages and of Oriental Studies and form a bridge between them .
1.70	2. While the topic of the essay may be taught by a series of tutorials, € Candidates will be solely responsible for the final draft, which will not be read by the supervisor or tutor. Candidates must sign a certificate stating that the essay is their own work and that it has not already been submitted, wholly or substantially, for any honour school or degree of this university or a degree of any other institution. This certificate must be sent at the same time as the essay, but under separate cover, addressed to the chair of examiners.
Explanatory Notes	To clarify that the essay is intended to form a bridge between the two sides of the school and also to delete reference to the method of teaching, which seems inappropriate in the Examination Regulations .
