Explanatory Notes

Taught Degrees Panel of Education Committee decided at its meeting of 5 March 2019 that general regulations for awards in the Department for Continuing Education should set time limits on taking resits, and that these provisions in general regulations should apply unless otherwise specified in special regulations. The opportunity has also been taken to make clear that candidates are only entitled to one resit, and cannot enter again for the examination if they have satisfied the examiners at the first attempt, for consistency with other general regulations.
