Brief note about nature of change: brings the regulations for Part C into line with other changes in Philosophy regulations

Effective date

1 October 2012 (for first Part C examination in 2013)

Location of change

In Examination Regulations 2011

Detail of change

1. p. 328, l. 13, after "120" insert: ", 124, 125 and 180"

2. ibid., ll.14-15, delete "or the Rise of Modern Logic as specified in the Regulations for the Degree of Bachelor of Philosophy."

3. ibid., ll.18-29, delete: “Topics for essays shall be... two weeks of its being received.” and substitute: “The topic for a Philosophy examination essay in a given subject can be any question set for the most recent examination of that subject in Honour Schools with Philosophy, with the exception of questions for Plato: Republic (115) and Aristotle: Nicomachean Ethics (116) consisting of multiple passages for comment. Candidates may apply for approval of other essay topics by writing to the Chairman of the Board, c/o The Administrator, Philosophy Centre, 10 Merton Street, giving the title he or she proposes, together with an explanation of the subject in about 100 words and enclosing a letter from their tutor attesting to the suitability of this topic for the candidate. Any such application must be received no later than Friday of the sixth week of the Hilary Term preceding the Part C examination for which the essay is to be submitted. Late applications will not be considered. Any such application shall be accepted or rejected by the Board within two weeks of its being received."
Explanatory Notes

These regulations bring the regulations for Part C into line with other changes in Philosophy regulations.
