Changes to Examination Regulations 2012

Medical Sciences Board

Approved: 9th April 2013

Examinations: Honour School of Cell and Systems Biology and Honour School of Medical Sciences

Brief note about nature of change: Re-naming of two of the options available within the above honour schools.

Effective date: With effect from 1 October 2013 (for first examination in 2014)

Location of change: Examination Regulations 2012

Details of change:

1. In Examination Regulations, 2012, p. 165, l. 28, delete ‘Myocardial, vascular and respiratory biology’ and substitute ‘Cardiovascular, Renal and Respiratory Biology’

2. Ibid., l. 30, delete ‘Signalling in health and disease’ and substitute ‘Cellular Physiology and Pharmacology’

3. Ibid., p. 342, l. 31, delete ‘Myocardial, vascular and respiratory biology’ and substitute ‘Cardiovascular, Renal and Respiratory Biology’

4. Ibid., l. 33, delete ‘Signalling in health and disease’ and substitute ‘Cellular Physiology and Pharmacology’

Explanatory Notes

The changes to the titles of these options result from attempts to better reflect the content of two out of the five options, as well as revisions to content.

The changes were agreed by the relevant FHS Committee and approved by the Medical & Physiological Sciences Education Committee in Hilary Term 2013.
