^{1.10}The methodological introduction course will be assessed by an end of course essay of up to 4,000 words. The essay must be uploaded to the Assignments section of the Economic and Social History WebLearn site by noon on ~~Friday of Week 10 of Michaelmas~~ Monday of Week 1 of Hilary Term of the candidate's first year. A quantitative methods course is assessed by an assignment to be completed at the end of Michaelmas Term; the completed assignment must be uploaded to the Assignments section of the Economic and Social History WebLearn site by noon on ~~Friday of ninth week of Michaelmas~~ Monday of Week 1 of Hilary Term of the candidate's first year. Each submission will require the candidate to make a declaration indicating that it is their own work. In addition, convenors of qualifying courses will confirm in writing to the chair of examiners not later than Friday of eighth week of Hilary Term the candidates' satisfactory participation in their classes, including the completion of any assignments for the weekly sessions. Any approved alternative qualifying course will be assessed within the format and timetable of the paper's parent course. No candidate who has failed the qualifying test of two courses will be permitted to supplicate for the degree. Candidates who fail a qualifying course once will be permitted to take it again, not later than one year after the initial attempt.

Explanatory Notes

The changes to submission deadlines will bring them in line with other History courses.
