

Continuing Education Board

Approved by correspondence 30 May 2017

Title of Programme/ Name of Regulation [if general]]

Postgraduate Certificate in Architectural History

Brief note about nature of change: Clarification over course duration, removal of attendance from regulations, more detail around submission of assessed work , some minor updating

Location of change

In Examination Regulations 2016 <http://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/examregs/2016-17/pcertinarch/administratorview/>

Effective date

For students starting from MT 2017

[And]

For first examination from 2017-18

Detail of change

Delete from [1.1] to [1.11] inclusive and insert

1.

- a) The course will consist of lectures and classes on architectural history and on site evaluation and survey. The course may be taken on a part-time basis over a one-year period.

b)	The course will consist of three taught units, two of which will be on architectural history and one of which will be on site evaluation and survey.
2.	Every candidate will be required to satisfy the examiners in the following portfolio of written work <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) three essays or projects linked to unit one, each of which shall not exceed 1,500 words in length; b) two essays linked to unit two, each of which shall not exceed 2,000 words in length; c) a workbook linked to unit three; d) a dissertation which shall not exceed 8,000 words in length on a topic selected by the candidate in consultation with the supervisor and agreed by any two of the examiners The assignments under (a)-(c) and the dissertation under (d) will be submitted to the examiners c/o the Registry, Department for Continuing Education, Wellington Square, Oxford, OX1 2JD by such dates as the examiners shall determine and shall notify to candidates. The dissertation shall be submitted in hard copy and in a digital copy in a format prescribed in the course handbook.
3	Candidates may be expected to attend a viva voce examination at the end of the course of studies at the discretion of the examiners.
4	The examiners may award a distinction to candidates for the Certificate.
5	Candidates who fail to satisfy the examiners in the assignments under 2.(a)-(c), or the dissertation under 2.(d), or both, may be permitted to resubmit work in respect of part or parts of the examination which they have failed for examination on not more than one occasion which shall normally be within one year of the initial failure.
Explanatory Notes	