

Humanities Divisional Board

Title of Programme

Master of Studies in Ancient Philosophy

Brief note about nature of change:

Modification concerning deadline for thesis submission

Effective date

For students starting from MT 2016.

For first examination from 2016-17

Location of change

In Examination Regulations online, Master of Studies in Ancient Philosophy

Detail of change

^{1.8}8. Candidates must offer a thesis of no more than 10,000-15,000 words, exclusive of bibliographical references, on a subject proposed by the candidate in consultation with his or her supervisor and approved by the Graduate Studies Committee in Philosophy. A subject and thesis title must be submitted to the Committee no later than the fifth week of the Hilary Term of the year in which the examination is to be taken. Requests for permission to make later changes to the thesis title should be submitted, with the support of the candidate's supervisor to the Director of Graduate Studies in Philosophy as soon as the candidate has decided to seek permission. Two copies of the thesis must be submitted to the Examination Schools, High Street, Oxford OX1 4BG, by 10 a.m. on ~~Friday~~ Wednesday of eighth week of Trinity Term in the year in which the examination is taken. The thesis shall be accompanied by a brief abstract and statement of the number of words it contains (exclusive of bibliographical references). Successful candidates will be required to deposit one copy of the thesis in the Bodleian Library (candidates will also be required to sign a form stating that they give permission for the thesis to be consulted).

Explanatory Notes

This makes the thesis submission deadline in line with the BPhil in Philosophy and will allow valuable extra time for double marking, possible third marking, and review by the external examiner, before the board of examiners meets end June/early July.
