Detail of change

(cit 1.9) 6. Each candidate in consultation with their supervisor shall notify the director of the course of their intention to offer a written assignment for a lecture course not later than the ~~Friday of the third week of each term~~ deadlines as specified in the Course Handbook. No candidate may offer more than four courses in one term. There will be a written assignment for each course. The topics in the assignment will be suggested by the relevant lecturer not later than the ~~Monday~~ Friday of eighth week of the term during which the course is given. These topics will be sufficient to offer options appropriate to the course. The choice of topics will vary from year to year. Completed assignments must be delivered not later than noon on the date specified by the examiners in the Course Handbook ~~Monday of the eleventh week of the term during which the course is offered~~, to the M.Sc. Examiners (Mathematics and Foundations of Computer Science), c/o Examination Schools, High Street, Oxford, together with a signed statement that the work offered for assessment is the candidate's own.

(cit 1.10) 7. A candidate who does not submit a written assignment on a course for which he or she has entered, by noon on the ~~Monday of the eleventh week of the relevant term~~ deadline specified in the Course Handbook, shall be deemed to have failed the course in question.

Explanatory Notes

Updates brought about by a trial change to the submission deadline for Hilary Term assignments. As such the dates are no longer consistent each term so students are referred to the course handbook which will provide this detail.
