Education Committee

Approved at the meeting of the Examinations Panel of Education Committee of 9 May 2016

Regulations for the Conduct of University Examinations

Brief note about nature of change: To reflect practice by removing the requirement for standing orders for examiners to be submitted to the Proctors and to Education Committee

Effective date

From MT16

Location of change

In Examination Regulations 2015, Regulations for the Conduct of University Examinations, Part 4

Detail of change

http://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/examregs/2015-16/rftcoue-p4enomiandvaca/

Deleted text has been struck through.

Regulations for the Conduct of University Examinations: Part 4 Examiners: Nominations and Vacancies

> [1.1]4.1. It is the duty of every supervisory body to establish and maintain standing orders for:
>
>> 1.2 the number of examiners for any University Examination for which that supervisory body is responsible;
>>
>> 1.3 the examiners' period of office;
>>
>> 1.4 the appointment of a chair of examiners;

1.5 the composition and constitution (including the arrangements for appointment of the chair and rules as to quorum) of any nominating committee to whom responsibilities are delegated under regulations 4.4 or 4.5 below; and

1.6 the period of service of the members of that committee and the filling of vacancies.

[1.7]4.2. The standing orders made under regulation 4.1 above shall be submitted~~:~~

[1.8]~~(1)~~ to ~~the Proctors and~~ the Registrar1 before the beginning of each academic year.~~; and~~

[1.9]~~(2) the Education Committee with the examiners' report at the conclusion of the Examination.~~

Explanatory Notes

At its Trinity Term 2016 meeting, Examinations Panel agreed that the requirement for standing orders for examiners to be submitted to the Proctors and to Education Committee should be removed, to reflect practice. The requirement for standing orders to be submitted to the Registrar (i.e. the Head of Examinations and Assessments, acting on behalf of the Registrar) remains.