

HUMANITIES DIVISIONAL BOARD
Title of Programme	Final Honour School of History and English
Brief note about nature of change:	Clarification of allowed combination of English papers
Effective date	For all students on course from Michaelmas Term 2015
Location of change	In Examination Regulations 2014, p233
Detail of change	Attached.
Explanatory Notes	Clarification that English papers must be chosen all from CI or all from CII as per English FHS regulations. This has been in place for some time and is mentioned twice in the HENG FHS handbook, however it was felt that it could be specified more clearly in the regulations.

2. History and English papers

(i) One compulsory interdisciplinary bridge paper, which shall be examined by an extended essay of between 5,000 and 6,000 words, including footnotes and notes but excluding bibliography. The list of topics for this paper shall be published to candidates by the beginning of the first week of the Michaelmas Term in the year preceding the final examination, and shall be available thereafter from the English Faculty Office and the History Faculty Office.

Candidates must obtain written approval from the Chair of Examiners for the Honour School of History and English for the proposed essay title, not later than Friday of the eighth week of the Hilary Term in the year preceding the final examination.

The candidate must deliver two typed copies of the bridge paper essay by hand to the Chair of Examiners for the Joint School of History and English, at the Examination Schools, High Street, by noon on Thursday of the eighth week of the Trinity Term in the final year preceding the final examination. A certificate, signed by the candidate to the effect that each essay is the candidate's own work, and that the candidate has read the History Faculty and English Language and Literature Faculty guidelines on plagiarism, must be presented together with the submission (see the introductory regulations for 'submitted work' for the Honour School of History and English).

(ii) One period of British History not taken in the First Public Examination (as specified in the regulations for History).

(iii) and (iv) Two subjects chosen from subjects 1 to 6 of Course I or two subjects chosen from subjects 1 to 6 of Course II of the Honour School of English Language and Literature (as specified in the regulations for the Honour School of English Language and Literature).

(v) and (vi) Two subjects from the Honour School of History, consisting of either (a) Special Subject (which comprises a three hour paper and an extended essay, constituting two papers), or (b) Two of the following:

1. One General History paper from the Honour School of History;
2. One Further Subject from the Honour School of History;
3. One additional British History period not taken in the First Public Examination;
4. One additional subject chosen from papers 1 to 6 of Course I or Course II of the Honour School of English Language and Literature. Candidates must offer all Course I or all Course II English subjects.
