<tr>
<td>See below.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Explanatory Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Detailed prescriptions for individual papers in Classics are being transferred from the Examination Regulations to the Greats handbook, to offer the Faculty greater flexibility to review the prescriptions in future.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• A paper numbering system similar to the one used by Philosophy is being introduced across all FHS in Classics, with the aim of reducing the number of consequential changes to the regs when one change is made to the syllabus and simplifying cross-referencing between FHS syllabuses.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• The “Conversion of Augustine” paper is being transferred from Section III of the syllabus (Greek and Latin Literature papers) to Section I (Ancient History paper) with effect from the TT 2018 examination.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• “Greek Literature of the 5th Century BC” and “Latin Literature of the 1st Century BC” are being renamed “Greek Core” and “Latin Core” respectively to allow for the inclusion of texts written outside these centuries.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• The rules requiring students to offer the Greek and Latin core literature papers when offering a certain number of literature options are being relaxed with effect from the TT 2017 examination. Students will only have to offer one core paper when taking three or more literature options.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Seneca Agamemnon, Manuscript, Texts, Interpretation is being replaced with a similar paper on Seneca, Medea, Manuscript, Texts, Interpretation from TT 2018.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• There are no vested interests or resource implications.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• The attached changes correct a number of other minor typographical and formatting errors in the current online regulations, and removes unnecessary details from the instructions on submission of work (more detailed instructions are provided in the course handbook and circular to candidates).</td>

Honour School of Literae Humaniores

A

1. The Branches of the Honour School of Literae Humaniores shall be (I) Greek and Roman History, (II) Philosophy, (III) Greek and Latin Literature, (IV) Greek and Roman Archaeology, (V) Philology and Linguistics, (VI) Second Classical Language.
2. Each candidate must offer at least two of Branches (I)-(V).
3. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination in this school unless he or she has either passed or been exempted from the First Public Examination.
4. The examination in this school shall be under the joint supervision of the Boards of the Faculties of Classics and Philosophy, which shall appoint a joint standing committee to make regulations concerning it and review its operation, subject always to the preceding clauses of this subsection.

B

1. Candidates shall take either Course I or Course II. Persons who have satisfied the Moderators in Course IA, IB, or IC of Honour Moderations in Classics or of the Preliminary Examination in Classics may not enter for the Honour School of Literae Humaniores Course II without permission from the Board of the Faculty of Classics after consultation where appropriate with the Board of the Faculty of Philosophy. Such permission, which will be given only for special reasons, must be sought as early as possible, and in no case later than noon on the Friday of the first week of Michaelmas Term before the examination, by writing to the Chair of the Board of the Faculty of Classics, c/o 66 St Giles'. Applications must be accompanied by a letter of support from the applicant's society.
2. Candidates must offer eight subjects (and any associated papers of translation), which may include: up to five subjects in Greek and Roman History; up to five subjects in Philosophy; up to five subjects in Greek and Latin Literature; up to two subjects (or up to three, if one is a thesis [IV.6]) in Greek and Roman Archaeology; up to two subjects (or up to three, if one is a thesis [V.5]) in Philology and Linguistics; two subjects in Second Classical Language; except that (i) candidates in Course I may not offer Second Classical Language and (ii) candidates in Course II who offer Second Classical Language may not offer more than four subjects in any one of Greek and Roman History, Philosophy, and Greek and Latin Literature. The combinations of subjects permitted are set out in I-VI below. Candidates may offer a thesis as one of their subjects, with the proviso that those offering a thesis in Philosophy must offer at least three other subjects in Philosophy. No candidate may offer more than one thesis, except that a Special Thesis may be offered in addition to one other thesis.
3. All candidates must offer at least four text-based subjects, except that candidates in Course II who offer Second Classical Language must offer at least three text-based subjects. All candidates in Course I must offer at least one text-based subject in each of (1) Greek and (2) Latin. Some subjects (III.3503, 504, IV.4, III.7507) may count as text-based subjects in either Greek or Latin. The text-based subjects are as follows:

   (1) in Greek

   130: Plato, Republic
   131: Plato, Theaetetus and Sophist
   132: Aristotle, Nicomachean Ethics
   133: Aristotle, Physics
   134: Sextus Empiricus
   1401: Greek History 1
   1402: Greek History 2
   1403: Greek History 3
   1404: Roman History 4
In the assignment of honours all eight subjects offered by a candidate shall count equally. In assessing a candidate's performance in a subject, the examiners shall have regard to performance in any associated translation papers.

4. In addition to their eight subjects candidates may also offer, but are not required to offer, a Special Thesis in accordance with VII below.

6. Any candidate whose native language is not English may bring a bilingual (native language to English) dictionary for use in any examination paper where candidates are required to translate Ancient Greek and/or Latin texts into English.
For each subject in I, III, IV, V and VI below, a detailed specification and (where applicable) prescribed texts will be given in the Greats Handbook applicable to the relevant year of examination. The handbook will be published no later than Monday of Week 5 of Hilary Term two years preceding the examination.

They may also offer subject 6 as their sole Archaeology subject.

IV.601: The Greeks and the Mediterranean World c.950 BC -500 BC

Candidates will be expected to show knowledge of the material evidence from the Greek world and the areas of contact between Greek and other Mediterranean peoples. Areas of emphasis will include Athens and Attica; the non-Greek states bordering the Mediterranean and their reciprocal relationships with the Greeks; Greek colonial settlements; trade and coinage; problems of method and chronology. Knowledge of the principal series of artefacts of the period, their development and problems of method and chronology will be examined. In the examination candidates will be required to answer one picture question and three others.

IV.602: Greek Art and Archaeology, c.500-300 BC

Candidates will be expected to show knowledge of the architecture, sculpture, and other representational arts of the classical Greek city. Areas of emphasis will include the city of Athens and the historical context and significance of the art and monuments of the period. In the examination candidates will be required to answer one picture question and three others: one each from the following sections: (a) architecture, buildings, and urbanism, (b) statues, reliefs, temple sculptures, (c) painting, painted pottery, and other figured artefacts. Credit will be given for knowledge of relevant material in the Ashmolean Museum and Cast Gallery.

IV.603: Hellenistic Art and Archaeology, 330 – 30 BC

The paper studies major themes, contexts, and media of Hellenistic art, set against the archaeology of the best-preserved cities and sites of the period – from Macedonia to Bactria, from the Aegean to central Italy. The material includes distinctive categories of object, such as bronzeware, clay seals, gems, glassware, grave stelai, jewellery, mosaics, silverware, statues in bronze, statues in marble, terracottas, and wall paintings. The contexts are cities, sanctuaries, tombs, palaces, villas, and houses. The period extends from Alexander’s conquest of Asia to the adoption of Hellenistic art and material technology in Italy and the end of the Ptolemaic dynasty in Alexandria.

IV.604: Art under the Roman Empire AD 14-337

The art and visual culture of the Roman empire is studied in its physical, social, and historical contexts. Candidates will be expected to be familiar with major monuments in Rome and Italy and other leading centres of the empire (such as Aphrodisias, Athens, Ephesus, and Lepcis Magna) and with the main strands and contexts of representation in the eastern and western provinces. They will be expected to show knowledge of written evidence where relevant as well as of the main media and categories of surviving images – statues, portrait busts, historical reliefs, funerary monuments, cameos, wall paintings, mosaics, silverware, and coins. In the examination candidates will be required to answer one picture question and three others.

IV.605: Roman Archaeology: Cities and Settlement under the Empire

The subject comprises the study of the Roman city from Augustus to the Tetrarchy placed in the broader context of patterns of rural settlement, agricultural production, transport, and trade. Areas of emphasis include selected key sites (Ostia, Pompeii, Corinth, Caesarea Maritima, Palmyra, Lepcis Magna, and Silchester) and major landscape studies in Italy, Greece, and North Africa. Particular attention is paid to problems and biases in assessing the character of the surviving evidence and in testing theoretical models against physical data. Candidates will be expected to show knowledge of written evidence where relevant as well as of the main categories of surviving ancient material evidence. In the examination candidates will be required to answer one picture question and three others.

VII. Special Theses
Candidates may offer, but are not required to offer, a Special Thesis in addition to the eight subjects required above, in accordance with the Regulations on Theses below.

Regulation on Theses
1. This regulation governs theses in Ancient History (subject L14499), Literature (III.12599), Archaeology (IV.6699), Philology and Linguistics (V.598) and Special Thesis (VII), with the exception of Special Theses on subjects relating to Philosophy. For theses in Philosophy (II.199) and Special Theses (VII) on Philosophy subjects, see Regulations for Philosophy in all Honour Schools including Philosophy.
2. The subject of every thesis shall, to the satisfaction of the joint Standing Committee for Mods and Greats, fall within the scope of the Honour School of Literae Humaniores. The subject may but need not overlap any subject or period on which the candidate offers papers. Candidates are warned that they should avoid repetition in examination essays of material used in their theses and that may be penalised for substantial repetition may be penalised. Candidates who offer a Special Thesis and another thesis must avoid all overlap between them.
3. Candidates proposing to offer a thesis must submit to the Academic Administrative Officer of the Faculty of Classics, on a form obtainable from the Classics Office which must be countersigned by their tutor and (if different) by their proposed supervisor, the title of the proposed thesis, together with a synopsis of the subject in about 100 words, not later than the Wednesday of the first week of the Michaelmas Full Term preceding the examination. The joint Standing Committee for Mods and Greats shall decide as soon as possible whether or not to approve the title and shall advise the candidate immediately as soon as possible. No decision shall be deferred beyond the end of the third week of Michaelmas Full Term.
4. Every thesis shall be the candidate's own work. Tutors may, however, assist candidates by discussing with them, for example, the field of study, the sources available, bibliography, and the method of presentation, and may also read and comment on drafts. The amount of assistance a candidate may receive shall not exceed an amount equivalent to the teaching of a normal paper. All quotations from primary or secondary sources, and all reporting or appropriation of material from those sources, must be explicitly acknowledged. Each candidate must sign a certificate to the effect that the thesis is the candidate's own work, and that the candidate has read the Faculty's guidelines on plagiarism. This declaration must be placed in a sealed envelope bearing the candidate's examination number and presented together with the thesis. Candidates must submit a signed declaration that the thesis is their own work.

5. Theses previously submitted for the Honour School of Literae Humaniores may be resubmitted. No thesis shall be accepted which has already been submitted, wholly or substantially, for another Honour School or degree of this or any other institution, and the certificate shall also state that the thesis has not been so submitted. No thesis shall, however, be ineligible because it has been or is being submitted for any prize of this university.

6. No thesis shall exceed 10,000 words (the limit to include all notes and appendices but not including the bibliography). No person or body shall have authority to permit the limit of 10,000 words to be exceeded, except that, in the case of a commentary on a text and at the discretion of the chair of examiners, any substantial quoting of that text or of any translation of that text need not be included in the word limit. Where appropriate, there shall be a select bibliography and a list of sources.

7. All theses must be typed in double spacing on one side only of A4 paper, with any notes and references at the foot of each page, and must be firmly bound and identified by the candidate's examination number only.

8. Candidates wishing to change the title of their thesis after it has been approved may apply for permission for the change to be granted by the Chair of the Joint Standing Committee for Mods and Greats (if the application is made before the first day of Hilary Full Term preceding the examination) or (if later) the Chair of the Examiners, Honour School of Literae Humaniores.

9. Candidates shall submit two copies of their thesis, identified by their candidate number only, not later than noon on Friday of the week before Week 0 of the Trinity Full Term of the examination to the Examination Schools, High Street, Oxford, addressed to the Chair of the Examiners, Honour School of Literae Humaniores. At the same time they shall submit a searchable electronic version to the Academic Administrative Officer of the Faculty of Classics undergraduate@classics.ox.ac.uk.

N.B. For prescribed editions in all forms of the Honour School of Literae Humaniores, see the Greats Handbook

I University classes will be given for only one of these options each year.
