Brief note about nature of change: Amendments to administrative procedures for the degrees and tidying up the regulations.
Effective date For students starting from MT 2015 For first examination from 2015-16
Location of change: Examination Regulations 2014, pages 521-522.
Detail of change: Please see attached.
Explanatory Notes These changes reflect some administrative procedural changes and also tidy-up the current regulations: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Take-home papers will be released on Weblearn rather than collected from the Faculty Office. Information on where the paper will be released will be included in the setting conventions. 2) Candidates must submit an electronic copy of the dissertation in Word or PDF in a memory stick or CD-Rom. The memory stick and CD-Rom must be included with the hard copies of the dissertations. 3) All options are removed from the examination regulations to the course handbooks. Options will be finalised by the start of Trinity Term in the year preceding the start of the course to ensure that the list of available options is in the course handbooks in good time. 4) The phrase ‘Students are recommended to attend a language course abroad’ (or similar) is being removed from the examination regulations and put included in course handbooks. 5) The dissertation submission date is to be streamlined to three (rather than five) deadlines: noon on Friday of Wk 2, 4 or 6 of Trinity Term. 6) Amending phrasing on viva requirements to ‘Candidates may be required to attend a viva’. 7) Moving certain information (e.g. dissertation submission) to the general regulations rather than under individual degrees so that information is only available at one place.

(xii) Modern South Asian Studies

A. Qualifying Examination Candidates must pass a qualifying examination in Modern South Asian Studies not later than the end of the third term after that in which the candidate's name is first entered on the register of M.Phil students. Unless exempted by the Board of the Faculty of Oriental Studies candidates will be required to offer the following papers:

1. A language examination in Hindi (Beginners or Advanced), Brajbhasha and Old Hindi Texts I, or a substitute core language, based on knowledge of grammar, translation and reading comprehension. (Teaching for some languages may not be available every year).
2. A general methodological paper on the history and culture of South Asia, to be assessed by three-hour examination.

Candidates, who will submit a take-home essay in their first year of the course to partially fulfil the requirements of (c) in the Final Examination, must enter for this paper in their first year. The mark for such essays will not be moderated until the candidate's final year of the course. ~~Any failed Final Examination papers may be retaken on one occasion only, at the same time in the following academic year.~~
