

HUMANITIES DIVISIONAL BOARD
Title of Programme	Master of Studies in Classical Hebrew Studies
Brief note about nature of change:	Amendments to administrative procedures for the degree.
Effective date	For students starting from MT 2015 For first examination from 2015-16
Location of change:	Examination Regulations 2014, page 558.
Detail of change:	Please see attached.
Explanatory Notes	These changes reflect some administrative procedural changes and also tidy-up the current regulations: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Take-home papers will be released on Weblearn rather than collected from the Faculty Office. Information on where the paper will be released will be included in the setting conventions. 2) Candidates must submit an electronic copy of the dissertation in Word or PDF in a memory stick or CD-Rom. The memory stick and CD-Rom must be included with the hard copies of the dissertations. 3) All options are removed from the examination regulations to the course handbooks. Options will be finalised by the start of Trinity Term in the year preceding the start of the course to ensure that the list of available options is in the course handbooks in good time. 4) The phrase 'Students are recommended to attend a language course abroad' (or similar) is being removed from the examination regulations and put included in course handbooks. 5) The dissertation submission date is to be streamlined to three (rather than five) deadlines: noon on Friday of Wk 2, 4 or 6 of Trinity Term. 6) Amending phrasing on viva requirements to 'Candidates may be required to attend a viva'. 7) Moving certain information (e.g. dissertation submission) to the general regulations rather than under individual degrees so that information is only available at one place.
