‘Master of Science by Coursework in Social Data Science

1. The course shall be under the supervision of the Graduate Studies Committee of the Oxford Internet Institute.
2. Candidates must follow for three terms a course of instruction in Social Data Science.
3. The examination will be in nine parts, as follows:

Part 1: Compulsory core paper in ‘Foundations and Frontiers of Social Data Science’ assessed by written preparation for and participation in debates and the submission of written course work. Details of and arrangements for submission of the written course work shall be notified to candidates via WebLearn by Monday of week 1 of Michaelmas Term.

Part 2: Compulsory core paper in ‘Applied Analytical Statistics’ assessed by three-hour written examination at the beginning of Hilary Term.

Part 3: Compulsory core paper in 'Research Methods for Social Data Science' assessed by written coursework. Details of and arrangements for submission of the written course work shall be notified to candidates via WebLearn by Friday of week 4 of Hilary Term.

Part 4: Compulsory core paper in 'Python for Social Data Science' assessed by three-hour written examination at the beginning of Hilary Term.

Part 5: Compulsory core paper in 'Data Analytics at Scale' assessed by a project and written coursework. Details of and arrangements for submission of the written course work shall be notified to candidates via WebLearn by Monday of week 1 of Michaelmas Term.

Part 6: Compulsory core paper in 'Machine Learning' assessed by completed problem sets and written report. Details of and arrangements for submission of the written course work shall be notified to candidates via WebLearn by Monday of week 1 of Michaelmas Term.

Parts 7-8: Two option papers, to be chosen from a list to be published on the Oxford Internet Institute website annually by Monday of week 1 of Michaelmas Term. Not all options may be available every year. The option papers will be assessed by arrangements which are specified in the reading lists for each paper, details of and arrangements for submission of which shall be notified to candidates by Monday of week 1 of Michaelmas Term.

Part 9: A thesis not to exceed 15,000 words on a topic within the subject of the course, to be specified jointly by supervisor and student, and approved by the Course Director and the Board of Examiners. The thesis must be submitted via WebLearn by noon of the weekday on or nearest to the 1st of August of the year in which the examination is to be taken.

4. All written assignments must be uploaded to the course WebLearn by the times and dates specified at the start of the course. Each submission must be accompanied by a declaration indicating that it is the candidate's own work.

5. The examiners may examine any candidate viva voce.

6. Candidates who receive a failing mark for any of the summative assessments, may re-sit or resubmit the assessment on one further occasion, normally on the next occasion when examined and within one year of the original failure.'
