Council of the University

Changes in Regulations

Council has made the following changes in regulations, to come into effect on 12 July.

Medical Sciences Board

Explanatory Note

The following changes amend the composition of the Medical Sciences Board. The principal effects of the proposed changes are: to cluster the division's departments for the purpose of drawing the main group of elected academic staff members into the board's membership; to reduce the number of Associate Head members from three to two; to provide for the election to the Board of a member of the academic and research staff who is not a head of department or statutory professor; and to incorporate an external member and a member nominated by the Mathematical, Physical and Life Sciences Board into the core membership of the Board.

Text of Regulations

1 In Council Regulations 17 of 2002, concerning Divisional Boards, delete existing regulations 12–14 and substitute (new wording underlined, deleted text scored through):

'12. The Medical Sciences Board shall consist of:

- (1) the Head of the Medical Sciences Division, who shall be chairman;
- (2) the Regius Professor of Medicine;
- (3) a person appointed by the South Central Strategic Health Authority or any successor body;
- (4) ~~(7) four~~ six persons from among the members of the Faculty of Biochemistry, the Faculty of Clinical Medicine, the Faculty of Physiological Sciences and the Faculty of Psychological Studies elected jointly by the members of the Faculty of Biochemistry, the Faculty of Clinical Medicine, the Faculty of Physiological Sciences and the Faculty of Psychological Studies;

(8)–(11) four persons from among the members of the Faculty of Biochemistry, the Faculty of Physiological Sciences and the Faculty of Psychological Studies, of whom there shall be no more than one from each of the Department of Biochemistry, the Department of Physiology, Anatomy and Genetics, the Sir William Dunn School of Pathology, the Department of Pharmacology and the Department of Experimental Psychology, elected jointly by the members of the Faculty of Biochemistry, the Faculty of Clinical Medicine, the Faculty of Physiological Sciences and the Faculty of Psychological Studies; following six groups of departments: the Department of Biochemistry and the Nuffield Department of Clinical Medicine; the Nuffield Department of Clinical Neurosciences, the Department of Experimental Psychology, the Department of Pharmacology and the Department of Psychiatry; the Nuffield Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, the Department of Oncology and the Nuffield Department of Surgical Sciences; the Nuffield Department of Orthopaedics, Rheumatology and Musculoskeletal Sciences and the Sir William Dunn School of Pathology; the Department of Paediatrics, the Department of Primary Care Health Sciences and the Department of Public Health; the Department of Physiology, Anatomy and Genetics and the Radcliffe Department of Medicine;

(12)–(14) the chairpersons of the Personnel, Education and Budgeting and Capital Planning Committees specified in the Board's standing orders; ex officio; (10), (11) two of the Associate Heads of Division nominated, for a three-year term, by the Head of Division;

(15) one person from among the externally-funded research staff who are members of the Faculty of Biochemistry, the Faculty of Clinical Medicine, the Faculty of Physiological Sciences and the Faculty of Psychological Studies, elected jointly by the members of the Faculty of Biochemistry, the Faculty of Clinical

Medicine, the Faculty of Physiological Sciences and the Faculty of Psychological Studies;

(13) one person from among the members of staff who are not Heads of Department or statutory professors who are members of the Faculty of Biochemistry, the Faculty of Clinical Medicine, the Faculty of Physiological Sciences and the Faculty of Psychological Studies, elected jointly by the members of the Faculty of Biochemistry, the Faculty of Clinical Medicine, the Faculty of Physiological Sciences and the Faculty of Psychological Studies;

(14) one external person nominated, for a three-year term, by the Head of Division and approved by the Board;

(15) one member of the faculties in the Division of Mathematical, Physical and Life Sciences, nominated, for a three-year term, by the Mathematical, Physical and Life Sciences Board and approved by the Medical Sciences Board;

(16), (17) two persons appointed, for a three-year term, under the procedures of the Conference of Colleges. They shall have appropriate experience and understanding of academic policy and finance and be familiar with the subject areas concerned, but should not hold a salaried teaching or research post within the division.

13. The board may co-opt up to four additional members, on condition that the board shall always ensure by the use of its power of co-optation that the overall range of activities and concerns in the division is as fully represented within the total membership of the board as is reasonably practicable.

14. A person from among the Honorary Senior Clinical Lecturers who are members of the Faculty of Clinical Medicine, elected jointly by the members of the Faculty of Biochemistry, the Faculty of Clinical Medicine, the Faculty of Physiological Sciences and the Faculty of Psychological Studies, shall be invited to attend meetings of the Board but shall not be eligible to vote on matters before the Board. An elected

Consultative notices

Medical Sciences Division/Education Committee

REVIEW OF THE NUFFIELD DEPARTMENT OF MEDICINE AND THE RADCLIFFE DEPARTMENT OF MEDICINE

The Medical Sciences Board is undertaking a review of the Nuffield Department of Medicine and the Radcliffe Department of Medicine jointly with the Education Committee of Council as part of a programme of rolling reviews under joint aegis. The review will take place on 5 and 6 September and will be chaired by the Head of Division, Professor Alastair Buchan. A copy of the terms of reference for the review is set out below.

Terms of Reference of the Review Committee

1 To review the quality of academic activities in each department, by reference to:

- international standards of excellence
- action taken since the last review of each department or of its constituent departments
- planning statements at department and divisional level, and in the context of the University's Mission Statement and Strategic Plan.

In particular:

(a) the quality of the research of each department, including their participation in inter-departmental, inter-divisional and inter-disciplinary activities, their research profile and strategy, and future challenges and opportunities;

(b) the quality of graduate programmes and their delivery and related issues, including:

- access and admissions
- curriculum design and programme structure
- teaching, learning and assessment
- the relationship between teaching and research
- academic and pastoral support and guidance
- the provision and use of learning resources (including staff resources)
- specific arrangements for the pursuit of graduate studies (including research degrees and research training and provision for part-time study)
- relationships with colleges
- quality assurance mechanisms;

(c) the organisation of each department, their management structures and the relationship between each department and the division and the University's services, including such matters as:

- strategic planning (including relationship to the divisional five-year plans and the University's Strategic Plan)
- academic and non-academic staff planning and recruitment
- student number planning
- terms of appointment for academic staff, including career development and equal opportunities issues
- accommodation and future space needs
- fundraising
- any other matters in which any of the services within Academic Administration Division are involved;

(d) the relationship (structural and operational) between units within each department, and between each department and cognate subject areas and colleges to which they are linked in teaching and research.

2 To consider the current and long-term financial position of, and funding arrangements for, each department, and their financial strategy.

The review committee would welcome written comments on matters falling within its terms of reference. These should be sent to Jane Dale, Senior Assistant Registrar (Education), Medical Sciences Division (email: jane.dale@medsci.ox.ac.uk), by

1 August.

General notices

The possible wider use of the title of professor, and merit pay for academics

The Personnel Committee and Council are grateful to all those who submitted responses in the recent consultative exercise on these issues, which had a deadline of 22 April.

A wide range of divergent views were expressed, and the majority of the responses, including the majority of the 159 responses received from individuals, were broadly supportive of the outline proposals. Council has agreed to put before Congregation in Michaelmas term resolutions proposing a new system for merit pay for academics and proposing that the main lecturer grades be retitled associate professor.

The original consultation document may be found at www.admin.ox.ac.uk/personnel/staffinfo/academic/taskforceonacademicemployment, and the responses (where the authors so agreed) will be published on the same website shortly. The resolutions and supporting material, which will set out versions of the original proposals refined to reflect some useful revisions proposed by respondents, will now be prepared and will be published in the Gazette at the beginning of Michaelmas term.

Gazette publication arrangements

The final Gazettes of Trinity term will be published on 4 and 18 July.

The first Gazette of Michaelmas term will be published on 26 September, but will be limited to Council and Congregation business and changes to Examination Regulations. The first full Gazette of next term will be published on 3 October.
