^{1.64}5. All options, including the dissertation, require the approval of the candidate's supervisor and the Graduate Studies Committee for Ancient History, having regard to the candidate's previous experience, the range covered by the chosen options and the availability of teaching and examining resources. [For students starting from MT 2015: Options under B (vii), (viii), (ix) and C (xxiii)] in disciplines other than Ancient History require the approval of both the Graduate Studies Committee for Ancient History and the Graduate Studies Committee responsible for the discipline concerned.] The options must be submitted for approval not later than the Friday of [For students starting before MT 2015: the fifth week] [For students starting from MT 2015: Week 5] of the Michaelmas Term in the academic year in which the candidate intends to be examined. Candidates will not normally be allowed to be examined in languages of which they are native speakers or which they have previously studied in taught courses for more than two years.

Explanatory Notes

Option deleted from the MSt syllabus as the British School at Athens no longer runs the associated residential course.
