Changes in Examination Regulations – Social Sciences Division

Social Sciences Board

Approved by chair’s action on 14 July 2011

Title of Programme

MSc in Social Anthropology

Brief note about nature of change: Change of title for the two core papers

Effective date

With effect from 1 October 2011

Location of change

In Examination Regulations 2010 as amended by Gazette of 28 April 2011, Vol. 141, No. 4950

Detail of change

In the on-line regulations, under the ‘Schedule’, which follows clause 9 (with a date of effect of 1 October 2011), and in relation to the title of the two general papers I and II:

1. Delete ‘Social and Cultural Anthropology, I’ and substitute ‘Culture and Identity’.

Explanatory Notes

These changes amend the titles of the two general papers for this programme such that they more effectively describe the content of the courses, and avoid the confusion that might arise from two courses with very similar titles. The syllabus content remains the same in each case.
