Congregation 17 May

¶ Members of Congregation are reminded that any two members may, not later than noon on Monday, 9 May, give notice in writing to the Registrar that they intend to oppose or amend the resolution below (see the note on the conduct of business in Congregation below). If no such notice has been given, and unless Council has declared otherwise or the meeting has been adjourned, the resolution shall be carried and the meeting may be cancelled.

The following text has been received from the signatories to the resolution as listed below:

'Good Governance of the University in Relation to the Administration of the EJRA Scheme

Preamble

1. Compliance with the highest standards of good governance is essential for the advancement of the common purposes of the University, and to the flourishing and well-being of all its members. While day-to-day governance is delegated to the administration, Congregation, the Sovereign Parliament of the University, has the ultimate responsibility to ensure that the highest standards of good governance are met.

2. Congregation is asked to consider recent developments concerning the scheme of compulsory retirement, known as the EJRA ('Employer Justified Retirement Age') and to determine whether the administration of this scheme meets the expected highest standards of good governance.

3. On 1st September 2014, the Appeal Court of the University of Oxford, constituted by Dame Janet Smith, retired Judge of the High Court and then Court of Appeal of England and Wales, in an appeal Galligan v. University of Oxford, brought by D. J. Galligan, Professor of Socio-Legal Studies, against unfair dismissal on grounds of age, ruled¹

Regarding the EJRA as a whole:

- The EJRA as a scheme, including the policy of imposing retirement at 67, cannot be objectively justified [para 68].
- "The aims and objectives which could justify any compulsory retiring age ("refreshment" and succession planning) have not been shown to be weighty" [para 68].

¹D.J.Galligan "Goodbye to the EJRA", Oxford Magazine, No. 355, Noughth Week, Hilary term 2015, p 4. Colleagues wishing to see the complete judgement of the Appeal Court should contact the Registrar

The Judge further ruled regarding the current procedure for extension beyond age 67:

- The procedure is “fundamentally unacceptable as a means of deciding whether someone should be dismissed”. Rejection of an application under this procedure “could never amount to a potentially fair reason for dismissal”: [para 100].
- Requiring an established employee “to demonstrate that he (or she) is indispensable or be dismissed is an inevitably unfair dismissal”: [para 101].

4. The Judge ruled that the University Appeal Court has jurisdiction to determine whether the EJRA was justified in accordance with the Equality Act 2010. Dame Janet further ruled that she had decided the appeal “...on issues of principle unrelated to the particular facts of the appellant's case”: [para 101].

5. Despite the Appeal Court's ruling “...on issues of principle unrelated to the particular facts of the appellant's case”, the judgement that the University of Oxford EJRA cannot be objectively justified, has not been implemented by the University. Furthermore, the administration:

- Has continued to apply the EJRA and ignored the fact that the judgement was decided on issues of principle;
- Has not re-examined properly the legal standing of the EJRA in light of the ruling; the review promised by the administration is not due to report until the academic year 2016-17;
- Has made significant changes – not “minor editing” as is claimed – to the Aims of the EJRA procedure;
- Has insisted that the Appeal Court judgement is ‘confidential’ to the University (Professor Galligan has already waived his right to confidentiality);
- Has withheld from Congregation and other staff the principal rulings of the Appeal Court
- Has attempted to minimize the effect of the judgement by misleadingly and inaccurately referring to the Appeal Court's rulings as only “comments” (Gazette, September 2014).

6. The consequences for the University of the administration's continuing to operate the EJRA and failing to implement the judgement of the University Appeal Court are:

- The University therefore persists in a practice that has been ruled to be unlawful;

- The University therefore violates a fundamental duty to act in accordance with the rule of law;
- Since 2012, members of academic staff have been and are being forced to retire on grounds that have not been shown to be objectively justified, as required by law;
- The University is at risk of actions for unfair dismissal;
- The reputation of the University for probity and high standards of governance may be at risk;
- Substantial sums of money have been spent and are likely to be spent by the University in future in defending the EJRA against legal challenges;
- The University's ability to recruit leading academics is jeopardized, due to its having more restrictive employment practices than competing universities.

Resolution

Congregation resolves:

- (1) That the EJRA be suspended forthwith pending the publication of the findings of the EJRA Review Committee to all members of the University.
- (2) That the EJRA Review Committee now be afforded with at least five members representing and answerable to Congregation.
- (3) That the afforded Committee report its findings to Congregation by 1 January 2017.
- (4) That Council and all University committees promptly disclose to Congregation all legal advice taken regarding the EJRA.

Consultative Notices

Proposals for Honorary Degrees to be conferred at the Encaenia in 2017, and for Degrees by Diploma

Encaenia honorary degrees are conferred at the University's annual ceremonial event and degrees by diploma are conferred on heads of state and royalty. Members of Congregation are encouraged to nominate individuals on whom such degrees might be conferred.

The Honorary Degrees Committee is charged with considering nominations received and making recommendations to Congregation (after consultation with Council). When considering possible honorands, the Honorary Degrees Committee will focus on individuals in the following categories:

- 1 those of high academic distinction in the fields of research and scholarship of specific interest to the University of Oxford
- 2 those distinguished in the visual, literary, musical and performing arts
- 3 those distinguished in business and industry
- 4 those who have played a distinguished role in public life, for example in contributing to progress and change in society
- 5 those who have made a significant contribution to the activities of the University of Oxford - such individuals would normally also fall into one of the categories above.

Within those categories the Honorary Degrees Committee will aim to produce a balanced list, which takes account of the global dimension that characterises this University's activities. The Honorary Degrees Committee has adopted a target that half of the final list of names proposed to Congregation for the conferment of honorary degrees be women and/or minorities. Members of Congregation are therefore encouraged to nominate individuals of conspicuous distinction with particular reference to diversity.

Honorary degrees will not be conferred on anyone who holds, or who has retired from, a resident teaching, research or administrative post within the University or in any college or other society, except in exceptional circumstances such as distinguished service outside the terms of his or her paid service. In these circumstances, a proposal for an honorary MA may be put forward. Further information is available from the Secretary to the Honorary Degrees Committee (contact details are given below).

Nominations for honorary degrees at the Encaenia in 2017 and for degrees by diploma should be submitted on the approved application form. The form can be downloaded from www1.admin.ox.ac.uk/councilsec/governance/committees/hondegsg (single sign-on required). Alternatively, copies may be obtained from the Secretary to the Honorary Degrees Committee (tel: (2)80092, email: ellen.hudspith@admin.ox.ac.uk). The completed form should be sent to the Secretary to the Honorary Degrees Committee, University Offices, Wellington Square, or by email to ellen.hudspith@admin.ox.ac.uk by Friday, 6 May, under 'Strictly Confidential' cover.

While informal soundings within the University will often be desirable, every effort should be made to ensure that publicity is not at any stage given to any specific proposal for the conferral of an honorary degree. All nominations will be considered in strict confidence by the Honorary Degrees Committee, which submits its report to Council at the beginning of Michaelmas term. After discussion, Council will report back to the Honorary Degrees Committee, which will arrive at a list of honorands to put to Congregation.

The names of people on whom degrees by diploma and honorary degrees have recently been conferred may be found in the 2015–16 University Calendar, pp540–543.

This year's honorands are:

Monsignor Professor Tomáš Halík
the Rt Hon Lord Mance
Mr Pedro Almodóvar
Professor Paul Krugman
Professor Kazuyo Sejima
Dr Cornelia Bargmann
Professor Mildred Dresselhaus
Sir Jonathan Ive
Ms Jessye Norman
Mr Arvo Pärt
