Open applicants: candidates are given the opportunity of applying to Oxford without having to name three colleges. A total of 817 submitted completely open applications, while 2,190 named one college, and 2,178 named two colleges. The missing colleges were allocated by the Admissions Office computer which took into account the application patterns produced by the candidates who had named colleges. 145 of the 817 who submitted completely open applications gained places, which is an acceptance rate of 17.8 per cent. All colleges were allocated open application candidates; 10 were allocated fewer than 10, 13 were allocated more than 20 with one receiving 117 allocated candidates and another 114.
