Planning and Resource Allocation Committee: Regulations on Financial Matters

Changes in Regulations

(A) REGULATIONS ON FINANCIAL MATTERS: UNIVERSITY FEES 2012-13

Explanatory Note

These changes provide notification of the University fees that will be charged in the academic year 2012-13. New text has been underlined except in the tables where all fees are new (but not underlined).

With effect from 1 September 2012

In Examination Regulations 2011, delete from p. 1087, l. 28 to p. 1104, l. 26 and substitute:

‘[From 1 September 2012: 14. (i) For 2012-13 composition fees payable under cl. 1 above shall be of the following amounts, and those payable under cl. 2 and 6 shall be at the following annual rates:^[8]

(a) for members of the University (other than part-time students) entitled, in accordance with the Special Appendix to this subsection, to be charged fees at the appropriate 'home' rate and who commenced the programme of study on or after 1 September 2012 the fee shall be £9,000 except that for those working for an honour school requiring the study of one or more languages for an academic year outside Oxford, or for Law with Law Studies in Europe, and where the period of full-time study in Oxford is not more than ten weeks in total in the year, the fee, during that year, shall be £4,500;

(b) for members of the University (other than part-time students) entitled, in accordance with the Special Appendix to this subsection, to be charged fees at the appropriate 'home' rate and who commenced the programme of study on or after 1 September 2006 and before 1 September 2012 the fee shall be £3,465, except that for those working for an honour school requiring the study of one or more languages for an academic year outside Oxford, or for Law with Law Studies in Europe, and where the period of full-time study in Oxford is not more than ten weeks in total in the year, the fee, during that year, shall be £1,725, and except that those who commenced the programme of study on or after 1 September 2009 and where that programme of study leads to a qualification that is of an equivalent or lower level to one the student has already been awarded shall pay fees at the appropriate Island rate as described in (m) below unless the programme of study has been designated a strategically important and vulnerable subject or is otherwise exempt from having a higher fee charged, as determined by Council's Planning and Resource Allocation Committee from time to time;

(c) for members of the University (other than part-time students) entitled, in accordance with the Special Appendix to this subsection, to be charged fees at the appropriate 'home' rate and who commenced the programme of study before 1 September 2006 the fee shall be £1,380, except that for those working for an honour school requiring the study of one or more languages for an academic year outside Oxford, or for Law with Law Studies in Europe, and where the period of full-time study in Oxford is not more than ten weeks in total in the year, the fee, during that year, shall be £680;

(d) for members of the University working for the degree of BTh or for the Diploma in Theology, and who commenced the programme of study on or after 1 September 2006 but before 1 September 2008, the 'home' fee rate shall be £1,725;

(e) for members of the University working for the degree of BTh or for the Diploma in Theology, and who commenced the programme of study on or after 1 September 2008 but before 1 September 2009, the 'home' fee rate shall be £2,205;

(f) for members of the University working for the degree of BTh or for the Diploma in Theology, and who commenced the programme of study on or after 1 September 2009 but before 1 September 2012, the 'home' fee rate shall be £3,465;

(g) for members of the University working for the degree of BTh or for the Diploma in Theology, and who commenced the programme of study on or after 1 September 2012, the 'home' fee rate shall be £9,000;

(h) for members of the University working for the Certificate or Diploma in Theological and Pastoral Studies or for the Certificate in Theology who commenced the programme of study on or after 1 September 2010 but before 1 September 2012, the 'home' rate shall be £3,465 and the 'overseas' rate shall be £13,200;

(i) for members of the University working for the Certificate or Diploma in Theological and Pastoral Studies or for the Certificate in Theology who commenced the programme of study on or after 1 September 2012, the 'home' rate shall be £7,000 and the 'overseas' rate shall be £13,200;

(j) for members of the University entitled, in accordance with the Special Appendix to this subsection, to be charged fees at the appropriate 'home' rate and liable to pay a composition fee under cl. 6 above, the rate specified in (a) above;

(k) for Visiting Students, fees shall be payable at 50% of the 'overseas' undergraduate fee rate specified for the relevant subject area in the Schedule below; in cases where the subject is not offered at undergraduate level, fees shall be payable at 50% of the 'overseas' graduate research fee rate as specified for the relevant subject area in the Table of Fees or Schedule below; in cases where a Visiting Student is studying across subject areas in different categories of the Schedule, the applicable fee rate shall be that which applies to the larger portion of their studies;

(l) for Recognised Students, fees shall be payable at 50% of the 'overseas' graduate research fee rate specified for the relevant subject area in the Table of Fees or Schedule below; in cases where a Recognised Student is studying across subject areas in different categories of the Table of Fees or Schedule, the applicable fee rate shall be that which applies to the larger portion of their studies;

(m) for members of the University resident in the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands, fees in one of four bands, details of which may be obtained from the University Offices (Planning and Resource Allocation Section), or from College offices;

(n) for all other members of the University, the appropriate amount or rate as specified in the schedule below.

(ii) For 2012–13, composition fees payable under cl. 3 above (other than those admitted by the Continuing Education Board or by any other Board to undertake a programme with a modular fee and assessment structure) shall be at the following annual rates:^[9]

(a) For members of the University entitled, in accordance with the Special Appendix to this subsection, to be charged fees at the appropriate 'home' rate, c. £3,900, or half that rate if part-time students for Degrees, Diplomas or Certificates not specified in items (b) to (j) below; except that those who commenced the programme of study on or after 1 September 2009 and before 1 September 2011 and where that programme of study leads to a qualification that is of an equivalent or lower level to one the student has already been awarded shall pay fees at the appropriate rate as determined by Council's Planning and Resource Allocation Committee on the basis of the relevant Island rate as described in (i) (m) above or at the rate specified in the table below whichever is the higher unless the programme of study has been designated a strategically important and vulnerable subject, is a research programme of study or is otherwise exempt from having a higher fee charged, as determined by Council's Planning and Resource Allocation Committee from time to time.

(B) REGULATIONS ON FINANCIAL MATTERS: AMENDMENT TO REGULATIONS GOVERNING FEES PAYABLE BY 'CERTAIN STUDENTS OF SCIENCE'

Explanatory Note

The following change, made on the recommendation of the Planning Resource and Allocation Committee after consultation with Education Committee, amends the regulations governing fees payable by 'certain students of science' so that they are no longer restricted to science students, and revises the record-keeping arrangements. The effect of these changes is to bring the regulations into line with current practice. New text has been underlined and deleted text struck through.

Text of Regulations

With immediate effect

In Examination Regulations 2011, p. 1107, delete ll. 18–40 and substitute:

'§7. Fees payable by certain students of Science

1. If a person who is not a member of the University is admitted to work, and receive instruction or supervision, in any university ~~laboratory or clinical academic~~ department by the head of the department, he or she shall pay to the Secretary of the Chest such fee or fees as shall be prescribed by the head of the department in accordance with arrangements approved from time to time by Council's Education and Planning and Resource Allocation Committees.
2. The head of each department shall have discretion to fix a fee or fees for any member of the University who is working in his or her department, unless that member is liable to pay a composition fee under the provisions of §6 of this Section or would be liable but for the provisions of cl. 4 or 5 thereof.
3. The head of each department shall maintain, and on request send to the Secretary of the Chest not later than the end of the third week of Full Term, or in the case of students working in the vacation only, as soon as may be, a list of the names of the students attending lectures or working in his or her department other than those liable to pay a fee covering that term under §6, cl. 1 and 3 of this section.
4. No fee shall be payable under the provisions of this subsection by any person who is paying a fee under the provisions of §8 of this Section, or whose name is on the Register of Recognised Students or the Register of Visiting Students, or by any salaried employee who is receiving instruction or supervision in the department in which he or she is working.

5. For the purposes of this subsection the word 'Term' shall include the vacation following.'
