Effective date
For students starting from MT 2021
[And]
For first examination from TT 2022

Detail of change

1.90 (v) Jewish Studies

1.91A. Qualifying Examination

1.92 Candidates must pass a qualifying examination in Biblical Hebrew or Modern Hebrew or Yiddish not later than the end of the Hilary Trinity term of the first year of the course unless exempted by the Board of the Faculty of Oriental Studies. The examination will consist of a language examination in Biblical Hebrew or Modern Hebrew or Yiddish based on grammar knowledge and reading comprehension. Candidates, who will submit a take-home essay in their first year of the course to partially fulfil the requirements of (b) in the Final Examination, must enter for this paper in their first year. Marks will not be moderated for Final Examination take-home essays taken in the first year of the course until the end of the second year of the course.
Explanatory Notes

Moving the qualifying exam from Hilary to Trinity Term allows students a further term of study before being examined, reduces the administrative workload and the number of exam board meetings needing to be organised.
