Congregation

Congregation

16 June

¶ The meeting of Congregation is cancelled. The sole business comprises questions to which no opposition has been notified and in respect of which no request for adjournment has been received, and the Vice-Chancellor will accordingly declare the Resolutions carried without a meeting under the provisions of Sect 7 (1) of Statute VI.

(1) Voting on a Resolution authorising that site B1, approximately 2,598 sqm, on the Old Road Campus be allocated to the Medical Sciences Division for the construction of a new building for the new Institute of Global Health

(For explanatory note and text of resolution see Gazette No 5277, 21 May 2020, p407.)

(2) Voting on a Resolution authorising the allocation of space within the Robert Hooke Building to the Department of Computer Science

(For explanatory note and text of resolution see Gazette No 5277, 21 May 2020, p407.)

Congregation

30 June

¶ Members of Congregation are reminded that any two members may, not later than noon on 22 June, give notice in writing to the Registrar that they wish to oppose or amend the legislative proposal at (1) below or amend the regulations at (2) below (see the note on the conduct of business in Congregation below). If no such notice has been given, and unless Council has declared otherwise or the meeting has been adjourned, the legislative proposal and the regulations shall be declared approved, and the meeting may be cancelled.

(1) Voting on Legislative Proposal: Statute V: Colleges, Societies and Permanent Private Halls

Explanatory Note

The legislative proposal, and the changes to be made to the regulations if the revised Statute is approved by Congregation, change the name of Parks College to Reuben College.

This follows the agreement of the Reuben Foundation to make a benefaction to the University of £80m to provide an endowment for the society currently known as Parks College (to be renamed as Reuben College) and to expand the Reuben Scholarship Programme.

£71m is for the benefit of Reuben College: £56m to form an unrestricted endowment for Reuben College and £15m to endow graduate scholarships to be held at Reuben College. That the society's name might change on receipt of an endowment was anticipated when Parks College was established: in the explanatory note to the legislative proposal put to Congregation in Trinity term 2019 and approved at the Congregation meeting of 7 May 2019, it was stated that the new society was 'initially to be known as Parks College'. The Graduate Endowment Matched Scholarships (GEMS) operational board has agreed in principle to match the £15m graduate scholarship funding with £7.5m from the funds set aside under the GEMS scheme.

The remaining £9m of the benefaction will support the existing Reuben Scholarship Programme, which was established in 2012 for disadvantaged undergraduate students.

The Reuben Foundation has been considered by the Committee to Review Donations and Research Funding in respect of their existing philanthropy and the committee's approval remains valid.

The allocation of the £7.5m of matching funding under the GEMS scheme is the only element of funding allocated by the University under this legislative proposal, and its purpose, to match funding for graduate scholarships, remains unchanged. Council therefore confirms under Regulation 1.6 of Congregation Regulations 2 of 2002 that the allocation of University funds associated with this legislative proposal can be met without curtailment of existing services or of services for which money has already been allocated.

Legislative Proposal

WHEREAS it is expedient to change the name of the Society currently known as Parks College to Reuben College, THE UNIVERSITY ENACTS AS FOLLOWS. In Statute V, concerning Colleges, Societies, and Permanent Private Halls, section 5, amend as follows (new text underlined, deleted text struck through):

'5. The following are societies of the University:

Kellogg College

ParksReuben College

St Cross College'

Changes in Regulations to be made by Council if the Statute is approved

In Council Regulations 1 of 2019, concerning Parks College, amend as follows (new text underlined, deleted text struck through):

'Regulations for ParksReuben College

1. ParksReuben College shall be a society through which persons who are graduates of other universities (or in the opinion of the governing body possess comparable qualifications) and who are not members of any college, society, Permanent Private Hall or other institution designated by Council by regulation as being permitted to present candidates for matriculation may be admitted as members of the University.

2. The governing body may admit to membership of ParksReuben College:

- (1) students desiring to work for research degrees;
- (2) other graduate students desiring to pursue academic work in Oxford;
- (3) other persons at the discretion of the governing body.

3. The governing body shall consist of the President, who shall be its chair, and Official Fellows and such other fellows as shall be made members of the governing body in accordance with by-laws determined by the governing body and approved by Council under regulation 4 (1) below.

4. (1) The governing body may from time to time make by-laws which shall be consistent with the statutes, regulations, policies and procedures of the University and which, when approved by Council, shall be binding on all Fellows of ParksReuben College.

(2) The governing body shall also have full powers (subject to the provisions of these regulations) to do all that may be necessary to administer ParksReuben College as a graduate society, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) it shall submit a report annually to Council;
- (b) it shall submit estimates to Council in Hilary Term in respect of the ensuing financial year, and shall satisfy Council that no charge will fall on university funds except such as may be provided by Council; and
- (c) the academic policy of ParksReuben College shall be consistent with the University's strategies and plans as approved from time to time by Council. In cases in which Council thinks it appropriate, Council may direct the governing body on certain courses of action consistent with those strategies and plans.

5. (1) The President of ParksReuben College shall be appointed by Council, after Council has considered any recommendations which the governing body may submit, on such terms and conditions as Council shall determine.

(2) The President shall be accountable to Council.

(3) The President may hold their office in conjunction with a professorship, readership, university lecturership or other university teaching or research post if Council, after consultation with the relevant divisional board and any other bodies concerned, shall so decide.

6. The officers of ParksReuben College shall be appointed by the governing body.

7. The governing body may elect to Official Fellowships at the society, on terms and conditions determined by the governing body and approved by Council, suitably qualified persons who are employed by the University.

8. The governing body may elect suitably qualified persons to other categories of fellowships approved by Council, on terms and conditions determined by the governing body and approved by Council.

9. Official Fellows will be appointed for a period of five years in the first instance, with re-appointment for successive five-year terms, subject to satisfactory performance of their society duties.

10. ParksReuben College shall be subject to all the statutes, regulations, policies and procedures of the University as they may be from time to time, unless those statutes, regulations, policies or procedures specifically state otherwise. Any powers or duties afforded to a Head of department by statute, regulation, policy or procedure shall fall to the President or their nominee. Where a statute, regulation, policy or procedure specifies an action or role to be carried out by a particular officer that does not exist in or for ParksReuben College, the Registrar shall appoint an alternate on behalf of Council.'

(2) Changes to Regulations for Investment Committee

Explanatory Note

In accordance with the resolution on Fossil Fuel Divestment and Net Zero Investment carried by Congregation on 28 April 2020, the following changes in the regulations of the Investment Committee are proposed to create a third nominated member of the Investment Committee. The new member will review and engage with progress on divestment and engagement in accordance with the resolution and report this to the chair of the Investment Committee. The report will be set out in the Investment Committee's annual SRI report to Council, which will be made available publicly.

23.5. The committee shall be responsible for the strategic oversight and supervision of all funds invested by, or for the benefit of, the University (including any funds placed with the University by external bodies), except:
