Committees reporting to Council or one of its main committees

CURATORS OF THE SHELDONIAN THEATRE

- One member of Congregation elected by Congregation to serve with immediate effect until the start of MT 2023 [vice Dr Andrew Fairweather-Tall]

The following nominations have been received:

Dr Pegram Harrison, BA Yale, MBA Lond, PhD Camb, Brasenose, Saïd Business School

Nominated by:

Mr J Bowers, QC, Principal of Brasenose
 Professor E Boehmer, Wolfson, English
 Dr A Fairweather-Tall, St Catherine's, Humanities Division
 Dr J Katz, St Anne's, Classics
 Professor M Kumbara Landrus, St Cross, Ashmolean Museum

 Professor J Reynolds, Green Templeton, Saïd Business School
 Professor P Smith, Kellogg, Museum of Natural History
 Professor W Whyte, St John's, History

Advertisements

Candidate statement:

My reason for standing to become a curator of the Sheldonian is to help care for a vital part of the fabric of Oxford. The Theatre is at the heart of our built environment, our traditions and ceremonies, and our distinctiveness as a university, city, destination, and home; I would like to contribute to its conservation, use, and future strategy to ensure its vitality in the present and future.

My qualifications for the role come from 20 years of research, teaching, public engagement, and consulting on the care and management of cultural institutions. In working with these organizations, I have learned about the importance of balancing curatorial priorities with community interests and commercial imperatives, and I would apply that insight to the role.

I advise museums, arts and heritage organisations on their leadership (including ensembles that regularly use the Sheldonian such as the Oxford Philharmonic), and help to train curators, conservators, commercial directors, outreach officers, and other cultural leaders. I contribute to the Oxford Cultural Leaders Programme in developing a pipeline of curatorial and leadership skills for the cultural sectors. I serve on the teaching board of the Ashmolean, and work with the University's Gardens, Libraries and Museums (GLAM) on numerous initiatives in teaching, research, public engagement, and commercial activity. And I regularly use the Sheldonian as a space for hosting events and lectures, and as a musical performer and avid concert-goer.

It would be an honour to serve in this office, caring for such an honourable building.

Mark Williams, MA Camb, Magdalen, Faculty of Music

Nominated by:

Professor Kathy Willis, Principal of St Edmund Hall, Zoology
 Professor Eric Clarke, Wadham, Music
 Dr A Fairweather-Tall, St Catherine's, Humanities Division
 Professor Steven Grahl, Christ Church, Music
 Professor Daniel Grimley, Merton, Music
 Professor Elizabeth Eva Leach, St Hugh's, Music
 Professor Christian Leitmeir, Magdalen, Music
 Professor Robert Quinney, New College, Music

Candidate statement:

If elected to serve, I would hope that my experience as both performing musician and regular attendee at concerts and events in the Sheldonian Theatre might bring a valuable and unique perspective to this role. I believe that my professional training as an organist, and particularly in the commissioning of a new instrument at Magdalen College, might be beneficial in discussions on replacing the theatre's organ. I would like to see the Theatre build on current projects that engage with the wider local community, and I would anticipate playing an active part in encouraging a greater range of events connected to this important element of the University's work. I hope that my presence on the Faculty of Music's Performance Committee might also lead to more fruitful and effective partnerships between the Faculty – and its valuable work in Access and Outreach, as well as in the promotion of contemporary music of all kinds – and the Theatre.
