Congregation

Congregation 15 October

Degree by Resolution

This content has been removed as it contains personal information protected under the Data Protection Act.

Congregation 30 October

¶ Members of Congregation are reminded that any two members may, not later than noon on 22 October, give notice in writing to the Registrar that they wish to oppose or amend the resolutions concerning the space allocation at (1), or the Strategic Plan at (2) below (see the note on the conduct of business in Congregation below). If no such notice has been given, and unless Council has declared otherwise or the meeting has been adjourned, the resolutions shall be declared carried, and the meeting may be cancelled.

(1) Voting on a Resolution authorising the extension of an existing space allocation in the Alden Press Annexe to the University Museums

Explanatory Note

The museums currently occupy approximately 853 sqm (NUA) in the Alden Press Annexe under an allocation which expired on 30 September 2018. Redevelopment of the Old Power Station for the occupation of Saïd Business School is now imminent and vacation of this space is required as soon as possible. The museums' original strategy was to concentrate its collections in the basements of the Radcliffe Science Library (RSL) and at the Book Storage Facility at Swindon; however it has now become clear that substantial works are needed to the basements. Therefore, the museums continue to require the space in the Alden Press Annexe for storage of the collections until the RSL basements are available or until additional long-term space can be created at Swindon.

Text of Resolution

That the allocation to the University Museums (comprising the Ashmolean Museum, the Oxford University Museum of Natural History, Pitt Rivers Museum and the History of Science Museum) of approximately 853 sqm in the Alden Press Annexe be extended for a period of two years from 1 October 2018 to 30 September 2020 or until vacant possession is required for redevelopment, whichever comes first.

(2) Voting on a Resolution concerning the University's Strategic Plan 2018–23

Explanatory Note

The current University Strategic Plan covers the period 2013 to 2018. In Michaelmas term 2017, based on submissions from the divisions, the Planning and Resource Allocation Committee (PRAC) reviewed the priorities and recommended to Council that a consultation should be launched in Hilary term 2018 in order to develop a new Strategic Plan covering the period 2018 to 2023. On 5 February Council approved this approach and a first consultation was launched on 26 February 2018.

During Hilary term an initial list of priorities was considered by a number of committees and groups including: Research and Innovation Committee, Personnel Committee, Education Committee, Finance Committee, PRAC, Council, divisional boards and the Conference of Colleges. A parallel online consultation provided all members of the University with an opportunity to feed back their views on the previous Strategic Plan and on the initial priority list. 125 members of the University responded in writing to the consultation, in some cases on behalf of other formal or informal groups. Feedback from the Hilary term consultation informed an initial draft of the new Strategic Plan which was considered by Council committees, including PRAC, before being approved by Council at its meeting on 14 May 2018 for wider consultation during Trinity term. The draft plan was published on the University website subsequently together with a digest of the comments which had been received during Hilary term. Overall it was intended that the new Strategic Plan should be shorter than the previous one, with a clearer link between the University's commitments and its priorities for action.

The draft Strategic Plan was then further considered by Council and its committees, Conference of Colleges and its subcommittees, and divisional boards and their subcommittees, at their meetings during Trinity term. In all, the draft was considered by around 40 committees and other fora, and additionally feedback was received directly from a number of college governing bodies. A second online consultation was launched on 29 May inviting comments on the draft Strategic Plan from current members of the University; 326 staff responded to the consultation (451 written responses in all). Six open meetings were held during Trinity term to provide staff with an opportunity to discuss different aspects of the draft plan; over 400 staff attended the open meetings. The open meetings were held in three different locations, including one meeting on the Old Road Campus, to try to ensure that all those wishing to attend a session had an opportunity to do so.

A final draft of the Strategic Plan was prepared following the Trinity term consultation. It was posted on the Strategic Plan website before the meeting and was approved by Council at its meeting on 9 July as the final version for submission to Congregation at its week 4 meeting in Michaelmas term 2018. Summaries of the feedback received through the two periods of consultation can be accessed at www.ox.ac.uk/staff/consultations/strategic-plan-consultation. The final version of the plan, as approved by Council, has been available on this webpage throughout the Long Vacation.

During Michaelmas term 2018 an implementation plan will be developed to set out in more detail a programme to deliver the priorities outlined in the Strategic Plan. The implementation plan will be overseen by a programme board chaired by the Vice-Chancellor reporting to PRAC. PRAC has responsibility for monitoring and implementing the Strategic Plan on behalf of Council.

Text of Resolution

That the Strategic Plan for 2018–2023, published as Supplement (2) to Gazette No 5216, 10 October 2018 (also available at <https://gazette.web.ox.ac.uk/files/universityofoxfordstrategicplan2018-23-2tono5216pdf>), is approved.

¶ A meeting will be held at 2pm on 30 October in the Sheldonian Theatre to formally put the resolution at (2) above to Congregation. Further information on the practical arrangements will be published in due course.

If no notice of opposition or amendment to the resolution has been received in advance of the meeting, it may not be necessary to proceed to a vote on the resolution. If, having taken into account the speeches at the meeting, the Vice-Chancellor considers that a consensus may have been reached, she may announce that, in her opinion, the resolution is accepted or rejected as the case may be. If, however, six members of Congregation rise in their places (for example, if they disagree), a vote will be taken. If a vote is taken at the meeting, the Vice-Chancellor and the Proctors have determined that this will take place by paper ballot.

Note on procedures in Congregation

¶ Business in Congregation is conducted in accordance with Congregation Regulations 2 of 2002 (www.admin.ox.ac.uk/statutes/regulations/529-122.shtml). A printout of these regulations, or of any statute or other regulations, is available from the Council Secretariat on request. A member of Congregation seeking advice on questions relating to its procedures, other than elections, should contact Dr N Berry at the University Offices, Wellington Square (telephone: (2)80107; email: nigel.berry@admin.ox.ac.uk); questions relating to elections should be directed to the Elections Officer, Ms S L S Mulvihill (telephone: (2)80463; email: elections.office@admin.ox.ac.uk).
