Council and Main Committees

General Purposes Committee of Council

The General Purposes Committee of Council has made the following changes to regulations, to come into effect on 31 January, unless notice of a resolution calling upon

(a) Allen and Overy Professor of Corporate Law

Explanatory Note

A change in name is proposed to reflect cessation of funding for the post from Allen and Overy LLP (now A&O Shearman). It is also proposed that research be incorporated into the duties of the postholder to more accurately reflect the needs of the post. This proposal has the support of the current postholder, the Faculty of Law, Jesus College and the Social Sciences Division.

Text of Regulations

In Council Regulations 24 of 2002, concerning individual professorships, amend the Allen and Overy Professor of Corporate Law as follows (new text underlined, deleted text struck through):

(b) Regulations concerning trusts

Explanatory Note

The following changes are made as a consequence of recently approved changes, to ensure accuracy and consistency of language throughout the University's legislation. They do not effect any change to the purpose of the trusts concerned or their operation.

Text of Regulations

1 In Council Regulations 25 of 2002, concerning Trusts, amend the part concerning the News International funds as follows (new text underlined, deleted text struck through). The notice setting out the relevant regulatory changes from which these proposed changes follow was published in Gazette No 5428, 4 July 2024, p573.

'1. The University accepts with deep gratitude a benefaction from News International plc to form a fund the income from which shall be used for the support of academic work (including the provision of library resources) by members of the Faculty of English Language and Literature, and in particular for the support of work in the area covered by the Rupert Murdoch Professorship of Language and Communication, endowed by News UK.'

Council to annul or amend the regulation is received by the Registrar by noon on 27 January (as set out in Statute VI: Council).

'Allen and Overy Professor of Corporate Law

1. The University accepts with gratitude the moneys offered by Allen & Overy LLP for the provision of an Allen & Overy Professorship of Corporate Law.

2.1. The Allen & Overy Professor of Corporate Law shall undertake research, lecture and give instruction in Corporate Law.

3.2. The professor shall be elected by an electoral board consisting of:

2 In Council Regulations 25 of 2002, concerning Trusts, amend the part concerning the University of Oxford ffennell Fund as follows (new text underlined, deleted text struck through). The notice setting out the relevant regulatory changes from which these proposed changes follow was published in Gazette No 5436, 7 November 2024, p158.

'5. The administration of the Fund and the application of its income, shall be the responsibility of the Oxford Green Estate Stewards Subgroup of the Buildings and Estates Subcommittee ~~Environmental Sustainability Subcommittee~~ of the Planning and Resource Allocation Committee.'

3 In Council Regulations 24 of 2002, concerning Academic and Other Posts, amend the part concerning the Eleanor Rathbone Chair in Contemporary European History Fund as follows (new text underlined, deleted text struckthrough). The notice setting out the relevant regulatory changes from which these proposed changes follow was published in Gazette No 5438, 21 November 2024, p184.

'6. The Chair shall be elected by an electoral board consisting of:

(2) the PresidentWarden of St Antony's College, or, if the PresidentWarden is unable or unwilling to act, a person appointed by the Governing Body of St Antony's College'.

Congregation 17 December

Declaration of Approval of a Resolution authorising the allocation of space in New Radcliffe House to the Department of Experimental Psychology

No notice of opposition having been given, the Vice-Chancellor declared approved the resolution concerning allocation of space in New Radcliffe House to the Department of Experimental Psychology.

Consultative Notices

Update on Statute XI: University Discipline

The proposed changes to Statute XI have now been reviewed by the working group set up by Congregation resolution in Michaelmas term. Academics and Professional Services staff are invited to respond to the points raised in the consultation paper (Oxford SSO required) via divisional Associate Heads (Education) or Education Policy Leads by 31 January. Oxford SU will coordinate the consultation for students.

Medical Sciences Division/Education Committee

REVIEW OF THE NUFFIELD DEPARTMENT OF MEDICINE

The Medical Sciences Board and the Education Committee of Council will jointly undertake a review of the Nuffield Department of Medicine as part of Council's programme of rolling reviews of faculties and departments. The review has been rescheduled and will take place on 8 and 9 May 2025. It will be chaired by the Professor Dame Fiona Powrie. A copy of the terms of reference for the review is set out below.

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR REVIEW

Amended by Medical Sciences Divisional Office June 2024.

1 The purpose of the departmental review is to consider and make an assessment of the following aspects of departmental organisation and activities by reference to:

- planning statements at faculty/department and divisional level, and in the context of the University's Mission Statement and Strategic Plan and available data;
- international standards of excellence and funder expectations/requirements;
- action taken since the last review of the faculty/department.

In particular:

(a) the organisation of the faculty/department, its management structures and the relationship between the faculty/department and the division and the University's services, including such matters as:

- the structure of the department and the efficacy of the structure, including the relationship (structural and operational) between units within the department, and externally to the department and the functioning of the department as a single cohesive entity;
- departmental leadership;
- departmental governance;
- strategic planning (including relationship to the divisional 5-year plans and the University's Strategic Plan);
- internal collaboration;
- external collaboration;
- staffing level, staff planning and recruitment (academic and professional services staff);
- staff experience and culture (including Equality, Diversity and Inclusion activities and their effectiveness);
- accommodation and space needs.

(b) the quality of the research of the faculty/department, including its participation in inter-department/faculty, inter-divisional and inter-disciplinary activities, its research profile and strategy, and future challenges and opportunities, including:

- research strategy;
- research environment and culture;
- research income;
- commercialisation and impact of research activities;

(c) the quality of undergraduate and graduate programmes (postgraduate taught and postgraduate research) and their delivery and related issues, including:

- access, admissions and outcomes;
- teaching, learning and assessment;
- the relationship between teaching and research;
- academic and pastoral support and guidance;
- the provision and use of learning resources (including staff resources);
- student number planning.

2 To consider the current and long-term financial position of, and funding arrangements for, the faculty/department, and its financial strategy.

The review committee would welcome written comments on matters falling within its terms of reference. These comments should be emailed to Dr Eleanor Waite (eleanor.waite@medsci.ox.ac.uk) by 14 February.

Call for nominations

The nomination period for the elections below will close at 4pm on 6 February. For further information, please contact elections.office@admin.ox.ac.uk.

Faculty Boards

BOARD OF THE FACULTY OF HISTORY

- 1 person elected by and from among the members of the Faculty of History holding posts on the establishment or under the aegis of the board, to serve with immediate effect until the start of MT 2025 [vice Professor Natalia Nowakowska]

General Notes

The elections on 6 March 2025 will be conducted electronically.

Nominations

Hard copies of nomination forms will not be processed. Nominations must be made on an official nomination form. Completed nomination forms must be sent as an email attachment to the Elections Office by 4pm on Thursday 6 February. Please ensure that the nominators listed in section D are also copied into the email when the nomination form is submitted, as this will act as verification of the nomination in lieu of supplying original signatures.

General requirements and eligibility

All candidates are asked to note the general requirements which apply to all committee members, as set out in Council Regulations 14 of 2002 (General Regulations of Council for Committees). Current members seeking re-election are also asked to check for specific restrictions on consecutive service. For further information, please see the eligibility and amendments to nominations sections within the Information about University elections pages of the Elections website (<https://governance.web.ox.ac.uk/information-about-university-elections>).

Candidate statements

Candidates are invited to include with their nomination forms a written statement of no more than 250 words, setting out their reasons for standing and qualifications for the office being sought.

terms of office are now coming to a close (thereby prompting all the vacancies now advertised for election).

For further information on a particular vacancy or the work of a committee or other body, please contact the Secretary of the relevant committee/body (as shown below).

Further information about the board

The board meets twice a term and meetings are scheduled for 2 hours. The terms of reference and membership of this Board are set out in Council Regulations 19 of 2002. For further information, please contact the Secretary (administrator@history.ox.ac.uk).

Contested elections

In the event of a contested election, the successful candidates will be determined by an electronic ballot. An email with further instructions will be sent to eligible voters on Wednesday, 19 February, using the email addresses provided in the electronic register of Congregation (NB with few exceptions, notably clinical staff, this will be the work address ending 'ox.ac.uk'). Candidates' statements will be published online and in the Gazette dated Thursday 20 February. Voters may wish to read these statements before completing their electronic vote. The voting period will close at 4pm on Thursday 6 March 2025.

Uncontested elections

If the number of nominations received by the closing date is no more than sufficient to fill the vacancies, the candidates nominated shall be deemed to be duly elected as of the close of the nomination period on Thursday, 6 February. When required, places will be allocated according to academic standing, as defined in Council Regulations 22 of 2002, Part 2: Academic Precedence and Standing. If the number of nominations received by the closing date is less than sufficient to fill the vacancies, those candidates nominated will be deemed elected unopposed, and the remaining vacancies will lapse, in which case, in accordance with the regulations, the places must remain vacant until appointments are made jointly by the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors.

Period of office

All vacancies are with immediate effect unless otherwise stated. In accordance with Congregation Regulations 2 of 2002, in any election where vacancies are to be filled for periods of different length, the elected candidates shall hold office so that the tenure of those who receive more votes shall be longer than that of those who receive fewer votes; but if the election is uncontested or if two candidates receive the same number of votes, the candidate senior in academic standing shall hold office for the longer period.

For further information, please contact the Elections Officer (elections.office@admin.ox.ac.uk).

Research participants sought

We are looking for 5–8-year-old children with Amblyopia (also known as ‘lazy eye’) AND 5–8-year-old children with normal vision to participate in our research investigating how Occlusion Therapy (also known as ‘patching’) changes the brain. Taking part involves coming to Headington, Oxford, for two MRI scans and some eye tests. Participants will be reimbursed. For more information, please email the KOALA study team at koalastudy@ndcn.ox.ac.uk and see our website: <https://tinyurl.com/4fu8kvyb>.

Groups and societies

Oxford University Newcomers’ Club welcomes the partners of graduate students, of academics and researchers, and of University staff, as well as others with a connection to the collegiate University such as visiting scholars. Our Membership Guidelines are on our website: www.newcomers.ox.ac.uk. We are run by volunteers and supported by the University. We provide information about the local community and many opportunities to share experiences as well as to take part in organised events and activities in and around Oxford. We meet at the University Club (11 Mansfield Road) every Wednesday morning from 10.30am–noon during 0th to 9th week, and informally during the vacations.

Oxford Research Staff Society (OxRSS): run by and for OU researchers, OxRSS offers social and professional networking opportunities, such as pub and games nights, Oxford walks, college dinners, and interdisciplinary discussion forums.
