Approved by Education Committee in Hilary Term 2018 (Clinical Neurosciences), Trinity Term 2019 (Translational Health Sciences), Hilary Term 2020 (Molecular and Cellular Medicine and Musculoskeletal Sciences), and Trinity Term 2021 (Medical Sciences)

Title of Programme/ Name of Regulation
Research Degrees in the Medical Sciences Division

Brief note about nature of change:
Change to the list of research degrees which can be undertaken through part-time study

Location of change
In Examination Regulations 2020-21, Research Degrees in the Medical Sciences Division (https://examregs.admin.ox.ac.uk/Regulation?code=rditmedisciedivi)

Effective date
For students starting from MT 2021

Detail of change
Under ‘1. Admission of Research Students’, amend citation reference 1.3 as follows:

In assessing applications from candidates seeking to undertake a research degree through part-time study in Clinical Medicine, Clinical Neurosciences, Medical Sciences, Molecular and Cellular Medicine, Musculoskeletal Sciences, Population Health, Experimental Psychology, Psychiatry, Experimental Psychology, and Primary Care Health Sciences and Translational Health Sciences, the responsible admitting body shall have regard to evidence that:

Explanatory Notes
These changes update the list of research degrees in the Medical Sciences Division which can be directly applied to on a part-time basis, to accurately include all those approved.