Laudian manuscripts

On 18 June, Council approved modifications to the above Charity by the passing of a resolution for the purposes of section 275 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act"). The approval of Council and the resolution passed for the purposes of the Act shall be effective 15 days after the date of publication of this notice unless written notice of a resolution, signed by at least 20 members of Congregation and calling upon Council to withhold such approval and such resolution, has been given to the Registrar by noon on 2 July. The full text of the resolution is set out below.

Council agreed to:

(i) note that the gross income of the trust over the Laudian manuscripts (the "Charity") in its last financial year did not exceed £10,000, that the Charity does not hold any designated land and is not a company or other body corporate, and that therefore s275 of the Charities Act 2011 applies to the Charity;

(ii) resolve for the purposes of s275 of the Charities Act 2011 that the trusts of the Charity should be modified as described in the paragraph headed "Modifications" below, Council being satisfied that:

(a) it is expedient in the interests of the Charity for the purposes in question to be replaced; and

(b) so far as is reasonably practicable, the new purposes consist of or include purposes that are similar in character to those that are to be replaced;

(iii) resolve that the modifications be notified to the University Gazette and provided that no objections are received from Congregation by noon on the 11th day following the publication of such notice in the Gazette, resolve that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Charity Commission on or after the 15th day following the publication of such notice in the Gazette together with a statement of the University's reasons for passing it. If the Charity Commission requires further steps to be taken the Registrar is authorised to take such steps as are necessary.

Modifications

'Hos Libros Amoris mei testes, uestrae fidei committo in Bibliotheca reponendos, hac conditione, ut nunquam inde extrahantur, uel mutuo cuiquam dentur sub quocunque praetextu, nisi solum ut typis mandentur, et sic publici et juris et utilitatis fiant...

[‘I commit these books, witnesses of my love, to your trust to be placed in the Library, on this condition, that they may never be extracted from there or given in exchange to anyone under any pretext whatsoever, except only to be committed to type and thus to be made public both of right and utility...’] shall be modified by the addition of a new exception as follows:

‘except to be lent or relocated for the purposes of public exhibition, any such loan or relocation and its terms having been approved by the Curators of the University Libraries at the University of Oxford, and thus to be made available for the benefit of the public’.

Iris Murdoch Appeal Fund

On 18 June, Council approved modifications to the above Fund by the passing of a resolution for the purposes of sections 275 and 281 of the Charities Act 2011 (“the Act”). The approval of Council and the resolution passed for the purposes of the Act shall be effective 15 days after the date of publication of this notice unless written notice of a resolution, signed by at least 20 members of Congregation and calling upon Council to withhold such approval and such resolution, has been given to the Registrar by noon on 2 July. The full text of the resolution is set out below.

Council agreed to:

(i) note that the gross income of the trust over the Iris Murdoch Appeal Fund (“the Fund”) in its last financial year did not exceed £10,000, that the Fund does not hold any designated land and is not a company or other body corporate, and that therefore s275 of the Charities Act 2011 applies to the Fund;

(ii) resolve for the purposes of s275 of the Charities Act 2011 that the trusts of the Fund should be modified as described in the paragraph headed “Modifications” below, Council being satisfied that:

(a) it is expedient in the interests of the Fund for the purposes in question to be replaced; and

(b) so far as is reasonably practicable, the new purposes consist of or include purposes that are similar in character to those that are to be replaced;

(iii) resolve that the modifications be notified to the University Gazette and provided that no objections are received from Congregation by noon on the 11th day following the publication of such notice in the Gazette, resolve that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Charity Commission on or after the 15th day following the publication of such notice in the Gazette together with a statement of the University’s reasons for passing it. If the Charity Commission requires further steps to be taken the Registrar is authorised to take such steps as are necessary;

(iv) note that the gross income of the trust over the Fund in its last financial year did not exceed £1,000, that the Fund is not a company or other body corporate, and that therefore s281 of the Charities Act 2011 applies to the Fund;

(v) resolve for the purposes of s281 of the Charities Act 2011 that the whole Fund ought to be freed from the restrictions with respect to expenditure of capital that apply to it, Council being satisfied that the purposes set out in the trusts to which the Fund is subject could be carried out more effectively if the capital of the Fund could be expended as well as the income accruing to it, rather than just such income.

Modifications

The trusts of the Fund shall be modified by replacing all or any part of the purposes of the Fund with the following purpose:

“to support research in old age psychiatry”.

to take part in a short research study. It consists of taking a high dose of omega-3 supplements for 28 days. The purpose of the study is to compare the effects of an omega-3 supplemented diet compared to a normal diet on a series of computer and paper-based tests, which take no longer than 2 hours in total (1 hour at the start of the month, 1 hour at the end). There is evidence to suggest that omega-3 is deficient in people with dyslexia, and there is emerging evidence that supplementing with omega-3 can help to improve deficits in dyslexia. You will be reimbursed for your time (around £10). For more information please email me at rachel.hulatt@oriel.ox.ac.uk.

Collaborative learning in young people:

we are currently recruiting participants for a study of how young people may learn from one another. To participate, your child must be male, 10-12 or 14-16 years old, and able to find a friend (from the same age group) who can come along to the Department of Experimental Psychology. The task is simple but fun; and both children will be reimbursed (£20 each). Please visit <http://redd.psy.ox.ac.uk> for further information.
