Explanatory Notes

The Academic Year 2020-2021 has introduced Trinity Term Prelims for single school Sanskrit as well as the enrolment of a ROS student specialising in Sanskrit. As a result of this new combination of circumstances, tutors have identified a mis-alignment between the Preliminary course in single school (O.S.) Sanskrit and joint school (ROS) Sanskrit. It is desirable both pedagogically and practically to bring these two programmes into alignment, as is the case with other Theology and Religion and Oriental Studies joint schools. There is also a discrepancy between one paper title in the Exam Regs and the corresponding Assessment Unit title, which can now be corrected.
