Convocation 16 June

Election of the Professor of Poetry

An election by Convocation will be held in Trinity term 2023 in order to elect the Professor of Poetry, to hold office for 4 years from the first day of Michaelmas term 2023. A meeting of Convocation will be held at 3.45pm on 16 June to announce the results.

DUTIES AND STIPEND OF THE PROFESSOR

The duties of the Professor are: normally to give one public lecture each term on a suitable literary subject (where the term 'public lecture' does not include poetry readings or recitals or other such events); to deliver an inaugural lecture; to offer one more event each term (which may include poetry readings, workshops, hosted events etc); to give the Creweian Oration at Encaenia every other year; each year, to be one of the judges for the Newdigate Prize, the Jon Stallworthy Prize, the Lord Alfred Douglas Prize and the Chancellor's English Essay Prize; every third year to help judge the prize for the English poem on a sacred subject; and generally to encourage the art of poetry in the University.

The Professor receives a stipend of £25,000 per annum which is increased in line with the annual cost-of-living increases for academic and related staff, plus £40 for each Creweian Oration. The post enjoys an association with All Souls College, but there may be occasions when the postholder is offered an association by another college (eg if the postholder has a prior association with another college).

Further information on the Professorship, including further particulars are published on the University webpages: ox.ac.uk/poetry.

ELECTION PROCEDURES

This election will be conducted electronically by Civica on behalf of the University of Oxford. A shortlist of applicants will be drawn up by the Professor of Poetry Committee. The successful candidate will be determined of members of Convocation, who will be entitled to vote on the shortlist in Trinity term 2023.

All members of Convocation who wish to vote in the election must register their intention to vote. Voter registration will open on 24 March and close on 12 May. Eligibility to vote in the election will be checked. An email will be sent to anyone whose registration to vote has been unsuccessful. Current status as a member of Convocation may be checked in advance of registration through the relevant College Secretary or Head of Administration. Those who intend to vote but have not yet had their degree conferred at a degree ceremony (either in person or in absence) should contact their college to arrange this at their earliest convenience but no later than 21 April.

Convocation

Convocation consists of all the former student members of the University who have been admitted to a degree (other than an honorary degree) of the University, and of any other persons who are members of Congregation or who have retired having been members of Congregation on the date of their retirement. Membership of Convocation is conferred automatically to members of Congregation whose names have been entered in the Register of Congregation and to Oxford degree-holders after having attended a formal degree ceremony (either in person or in absentia). The functions of Convocation are set out in the University Statutes (Statute III: Convocation).

Applications and Nominations

Those interested in standing for election should complete the online application form, which will close on 17 March.

Proposals for nominations are invited from members of the University and of the public. Nominees should complete the nomination form. Online submissions are preferred but nominators may also send written details of their nominee, including their email address, to Louise Hasler, Secretary to the Professor of Poetry Committee, Planning and Council Secretariat, University of Oxford, University Offices, Wellington Square, Oxford, OX1 2JD. Please note that nominations may not be submitted anonymously and only one nomination may be made per person.

The Professor of Poetry Committee may also approach potential candidates for nomination. An approach to enquire about interest in the post carries no guarantee of successful nomination.

The nomination form will close on 24 February.

The Professor of Poetry Committee will consider all nominations in accordance with the criteria published in the further particulars and draw up a shortlist to stand for election by Convocation.

Information for shortlisted candidates

As part of the canvassing process before the vote by members of Convocation, shortlisted candidates will be asked to provide a written statement, of no more than 500 words, setting out how they would approach being the Professor of Poetry. The statement will be published online and may include links to websites, podcasts or other social media, and a portrait photograph if desired. Further details will be provided to those candidates who are shortlisted.

Voting arrangements

Members of Convocation who have registered to vote will be entitled to vote electronically for one of the shortlisted candidates. Voting will be open from 18 May to 15 June. Voters will be sent instructions on how to vote once their eligibility to vote has been verified.

Result of the election

The result of the election will be announced in a meeting of Convocation at 3.45pm on 16 June in Convocation House. Members of Convocation wishing to attend the meeting are asked to note that the wearing of gowns is optional. The result will subsequently be reported on the University's website and published in the Gazette.
