Detail of change

1. Remove citation 1.6 and re-number:

1.5 Candidates may offer either Philosophy, Politics, and Economics or Philosophy and Politics or Politics and Economics or Philosophy and Economics.

1.6 The highest Honours can be obtained by excellence in a minority of subjects offered provided that adequate knowledge is shown throughout the examination.

1.7 Candidates must take eight subjects in all, and must satisfy requirements of particular branches of the school.

Explanatory Notes

Update of the regulations concerning degree classification to remove of a now obsolete reference to ‘excellence in a minority of subjects’.
