Detail of change

1. Amend citation 1.5 and 1.10 as follows:

1.5. The assessment shall consist of (a) written examinations and (b) course assignments. Candidates must satisfy the examiners in the assessment associated with each component. Modes of assessment and submission dates will be published by one of the Directors of the M.Sc. in Taxation and distributed to all candidates in the first week of the Michaelmas Term of the academic year in which the assessment takes place. All course assignments shall be submitted electronically. On submitting the assignments, candidates will also be required to submit an online declaration of authorship. Candidates will be contacted with details of how to submit the assignments.

1.10. Candidates who fail to satisfy the examiners in the assessment of any one of the components (other than Tax Principles and Policy and the dissertation) may retake/resubmit the failed assessment only once, no more than six months after the release of results for the original piece of assessment. Candidates who fail the examination in Tax Principles and Policy may re-sit the examination on one, but no more than one, occasion. Candidates must re-sit the Tax Principles and Policy examination at the first opportunity, which will be in Week 10 of the Trinity Term of the first year. Candidates who fail to satisfy the examiners in the dissertation may resubmit it on one, but no more than one, occasion which shall be by 12 noon on Thursday of Week 10 of the Hilary Term in the following year.

Explanatory Notes

The removal of references to the core unit, Tax Principles and Policy, to reflect a permanent change to the assessment of this module from written examination to coursework submission with effect from Michaelmas 2021.
