Congregation

Congregation 2 July

¶ No notice of opposition or amendment having been received, the Chair will accordingly declare the resolution at (1) below carried at the meeting. As set out below, a meeting will be held at 2pm on 2 July in the Sheldonian Theatre on the resolution and the proposed amendment at (2) below.

(1) Resolution to expel former student from Convocation Membership under Section 11 (3) of Statute II

For full text of the resolution, see Gazette No 5244, 13 June 2019, p550.

(2) Resolution: On the current and future status of language learning in our University

As a world-leading, truly cosmopolitan academic institution, this University needs to maintain and develop its provision for language learning. In view of the contradiction between the University's commitment to "in-depth study of the world's societies and cultures, supported by the outstanding breadth of our expertise in languages, ancient and modern" (Strategic Plan 2018-23, Engagement and partnership, 4) and the proposed plans underway to alter the size and scope of the Language Centre before a thorough-going process of broad consultation has been completed, we ask Congregation to:

- 1) Instruct Council to reinstate the cross-disciplinary Committee for the Language Centre that was disbanded in March 2017, and to suspend any plans to reform the Language Centre until a full and timely consultation process has been completed that has demonstrably included members of staff, students and the abovementioned committee;
- 2) Instruct Council to draw up a plan for ensuring the academic excellence that the Language Centre requires to provide cutting-edge expertise for developing the study of languages among students and staff within the university, and to continue to provide support and resources for learning languages beyond those taught in the University.

For the list of signatories to the resolution see Gazette No 5242, 30 May 2019, p498.

Council's response

Council considers the resolution acceptable to it.

Council recognises the strength of feeling on this issue evidenced by the resolution and its signatories. Whilst the consultation process on the proposals for change in the Language Centre had included plans for a strategic discussion on language teaching provision, supported by a review, the strength of feeling generated in the course of this consultation demonstrates the need for a more detailed review to be conducted, including questions around the governance structures for the Language Centre. Given that it is the desire of both Council and the signatories of the resolution for there to be such a review in order to guide the shaping of provision going forward, Council accepts the resolution and Education Committee will consider at the start of Michaelmas term the detailed arrangements for its review. In the meantime the proposal to make changes to library provision at the Language Centre will be put on hold and the Language Centre Committee will be reinstated, to be re-populated in Michaelmas term 2019. The Education Committee review can be expected to make recommendations on the governance arrangements for the Language Centre going forward, and it is possible that a different model will be proposed for the future which may or may not involve the continuation of the Language Centre Committee. The outcome of the review will be published in due course.

Notice of Amendment

Under regulation 3.18 of Congregation Regulations 2 of 2002, the Vice-Chancellor, in consultation with the Proctors, has determined the following to be a true amendment.

Explanatory Note

Following our meeting with the Registrar, Academic Registrar and ProVC for Education, on 31 May 2019, and in response to the latter's announcement of a forthcoming Review of the Language Centre, we as proposer and seconder of the Resolution, and after consultation with its 230 signatories – have decided that the following Amendment is needed in order to ensure a thorough and transparent reconsideration of the governance, status and role of the Language Centre. We therefore ask that:

Amendment

Section 1) of the Resolution should be complemented with the following text at its end [after "...committee;"]:

[full stop]. We therefore ask that:

1.1) The abovementioned consultation process should ensure a Review of the Language Centre as a teaching institution with the same Quality Assurance regime of Departments and Faculties in the four academic Divisions. Teaching and learning a foreign language is not simply a skill; it is a gateway to other cultures. As a result, the Review of the Language Centre will be preceded by a Self-Evaluation Document (SED) – as is current practice across all four academic Divisions – to be produced in MT 2019 by the Director of the LC and to be formally approved as soon as possible by the reinstated Committee for the Language Centre (in line with its membership and mandate at the time of the LC's last full Review, in 2007).

1.2) Given the lack of continuity in LC governance structures, and the lack of institutional memory about developments at the LC since the last full review in 2007, and in order to create the basis for informed decisions about the future strategy for the LC, the Self-Evaluation Document should be accompanied by an Independent Report (IR) by an External Reviewer on the subject of the governance of the LC since its last full review. The choice of the External Reviewer and the criteria of his/her IR will be set by the reinstated Committee for the Language Centre in MT 2019. The External Reviewer will also be involved in the Departmental Review which Council's Education Committee will organize in HT 2020, or later, once the SED and IR documents have been submitted.

Proposed by: Guido Bonsaver – Medieval and Modern Languages and Pembroke College

Seconded by: Patricia Thornton – Politics and International Relations and Merton College

Council's response

Council considers the amendment acceptable to it.

In previously accepting the main resolution, Council stated its support for a review of the Language Centre, to be conducted under the auspices of Education Committee in the next academic year. As a matter of standard procedure, Council would expect such a review to include a self-evaluation by the unit being reviewed and an appraisal of any recent governance changes, as requested by the amendment. The proposal for the review of governance to be carried out by an external reviewer in advance of the main review will lengthen the overall review process, but it should still be possible to complete it within the 2019/20 academic year.

In accordance with Congregation Regulation 3.17. (3) (a) the amended resolution shall, at the conclusion of any proceedings on the amendment and the resolution, be declared by the Chair to be carried without question put.

Arrangements for the meeting

Attendance and timings

The meeting will be held in the Sheldonian Theatre.

Attendance at the meeting is open to members of Congregation and to nominated representatives of the Oxford University Student Union (Oxford SU) as agreed in advance by the Vice-Chancellor. Admittance to the theatre will be on the production of a valid University card and will be on a first-come, first-served basis (places will be reserved for scheduled speakers). The doors of the Sheldonian Theatre will open at 1.45pm and will remain open throughout the meeting.

The Vice-Chancellor has decided that the wearing of gowns shall be optional on this occasion.

Notices

Order of proceedings

The Chair will first declare the resolution at (1) above carried.

The resolution at (2) above and the proposed amendment will be proposed and seconded, following which there may be further speeches on the proposed amendment and on the amended resolution. As no opposition has been received to the proposed amendment, and Council considers the amendment acceptable to it, following the debate, the amended resolution shall be declared by the Chair to be carried without question put.

Advance notice by speakers

Members of Congregation who wish to speak are asked to indicate this intention by emailing congregation.meeting@admin.ox.ac.uk at the latest by 10am on Monday 1 July. It would be helpful if members of Congregation intending to speak would explain in no more than 25 words what issues they wish to cover and whether they wish to speak in relation to the proposed amendment or to the amended resolution, to assist with determining the order in which speakers are called. Speakers will be expected to limit their contributions to four minutes. Owing to time constraints, it may not be possible to call all those who wish to speak. On the other hand, if time permits, those who have not indicated in advance may have an opportunity to speak.

Transcript

It is intended that a transcript¹ of the meeting will be published in the Gazette of 11 July and on the Congregation website. As a result of time constraints, it will not be possible to check the report of the proceedings with individual speakers before publication. Speakers are asked to provide their written texts by email to congregation.meeting@admin.ox.ac.uk by 9am on Wednesday 3 July.

¹The transcript may be edited for legal reasons.

Note on procedures in Congregation

¶ Business in Congregation is conducted in accordance with Congregation Regulations 2 of 2002 (www.admin.ox.ac.uk/statutes/regulations/529-122.shtml). A printout of these regulations, or of any statute or other regulations, is available from the Council Secretariat on request. A member of Congregation seeking advice on questions relating to its procedures, other than elections, should contact Dr N Berry at the University Offices, Wellington Square (telephone: (2)80199; email: nigel.berry@admin.ox.ac.uk); questions relating to elections should be directed to the Elections Officer, Ms S L S Mulvihill (telephone: (2)80463; email: elections.office@admin.ox.ac.uk).

General Notices

Gazette* publication arrangements

The final Gazettes of Trinity term will be published on 4, 11 and 25 July.

The first Gazette of Michaelmas term will be published on 26 September, but will be limited to Council and Congregation business and changes to Examination Regulations. The first full Gazette of next term will be published on 3 October.

Stephen A. Schwarzman Centre for the Humanities

For many years the University has aspired to have a centre for the Humanities in Oxford. When the University acquired the ROQ in 2003 this was felt to be the perfect place and Congregation designated a 10,700 sqm plot in the ROQ for the building. Following a £150,000,000 donation from Stephen Schwarzman, a centre for the Humanities can be built. The new centre will include a financial contribution from the University which plans to raise further funds for academic posts, doctoral students and the cultural programme. The building is planned to open in 2024, but the centre will come to life long before that through events and academic programmes.

FACILITIES

The centre will bring together seven faculties and will create a new Humanities library for the 21st century. It will also contain an exhibition hall, an innovation space and a knowledge exchange hub geared to students on the UNIQ summer school and other access programmes. The plans also include a performing arts centre: a 500-seat concert hall, film-screening, drama and music spaces and a broadcast studio. In this way we plan to open up the University to the public and especially the local community and to invite them in.

INSTITUTE OF AI ETHICS

To build on the extraordinary tradition of applied ethics at Oxford, an Institute of AI Ethics is being created in which philosophers can engage with computer scientists, legal and public policy scholars and others from across the University to ensure that humanities remain at the centre of technological developments.
