Title of Programme
Master of Philosophy in Linguistics, Philology and Phonetics

Brief note about nature of change: Correction notice

Location of change
In Examination Regulations 2019 https://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/examregs/2019-20/mopilphilandphon/administratorview/

Effective date
For students starting from MT 2019
For first examination from 2019-20

Detail of change
1.1. The examination shall consist of four parts:
   1.2(a) One general paper as indicated in A.
   1.3(b) Three papers which must be chosen from those listed in B or must be those listed in C or those listed in D.
   (c) A thesis of not more than 25,000 words on the subject approved in accordance with regulation 4 below and subject to the requirements in clause 5 below.

[Citation numbers 1.4 – 1.34 to be retained]

1.35 Candidates who wish to offer papers listed in C above must select two Indo-European languages or language groups, one of which must be studied in greater depth than the other. All such combinations are subject to the availability of teaching and the approval of the faculty.
4. The choice of the subjects for the thesis and examination will be subject to the approval of the candidate's supervisor and the faculty, having regard to the candidate's previous experience and to the availability of teaching. Not all options may be offered every year. The subjects which a candidate wishes to offer for examination must be submitted to the faculty for approval not later than Monday of the first week in Michaelmas Term in the academic year in which the candidate is to be examined. The subject of the thesis must be submitted for approval by the faculty not later than Monday of the first week in Michaelmas Term in the academic year in which the candidate is to be examined.

5. The word limit for the thesis excludes the bibliography, appendices consisting of a catalogue of data, any extensive text which is specifically the object of a commentary or linguistic analysis, and any translation of that text, but includes quotations and footnotes. Candidates are required to submit the thesis by delivering two copies to the Examination Schools, High Street, Oxford, not later than noon on the Friday of the first week of the Trinity Term in the academic year in which they are examined.

1.36 § 6. The examiners may require a successful candidate to deposit one of the submitted copies of their thesis in the Bodleian Library. Such a candidate will be required to complete a form stating whether they give permission for their thesis to be consulted.

1.37 § 7. If it is the opinion of the examiners that the work done by a candidate is not of sufficient merit to qualify them for the degree of MPhil but is nevertheless of sufficient merit to qualify them for the Degree of Master of Studies in Linguistics, Philology and Phonetics, the candidate shall be given the option of re-sitting the MPhil examination under the appropriate regulation or of being granted permission to supplicate for the Degree of Master of Studies.

1.38 § 8. Candidates requesting re-examination should be required to re-sit or resubmit any unit of assessment in which they have failed to achieve a pass mark. The highest mark awarded for a re-examined unit of assessment should be the pass mark.

Explanatory Notes

Correction of the notice placed in the 19/7/2018 edition of the Gazette where the addition of paragraphs regarding the thesis had not been included.