Text of Regulations

In the Part of Council Regulations 25 of 2002, concerning the Beit Fund, amend regulations 3 and 4 as follows: (new text underlined, deleted text struck through):

‘3. The University shall (a) apply the income of the Permanent Endowment; and (b) apply the income and, in its discretion, the capital of the remainder of the Fund for the advancement of education for the benefit of the public as follows:

(1) by establishing and contributing to the maintenance costs of the post of Beit Professor of Global and Imperial History ~~the History of the British Commonwealth~~ (“the Professor”);

(2) the payment of the Beit Prize and of the Examiners for that prize (“the Prize”).

4. The administration of the Fund, and the application of its income, shall be the responsibility of a board of management consisting of:

(1) the Vice-Chancellor;

(2) the Beit Professor of Global and Imperial History ~~the History of the British Commonwealth~~;

(3) one person appointed by the Board of the Faculty of History;

(4) one person appointed by the Board of the Social Sciences Divisional Board;

(5) one person appointed by the Humanities Divisional Board.

The elected members of the board of management shall hold office for three years and shall be re-eligible.

The board of management may co-opt up to two additional members, who may be internal or external, on condition that the board shall always ensure by the use of its power of co-optation that the overall range of activities and concerns of the Beit Fund is as fully represented within the total membership of the board as is reasonably practicable.’

(b) Changes to regulations for the Oxford University Ice Hockey Project Endowment Fund

Explanatory Note

These changes to regulations reflect new governance arrangements.

Text of Regulations

In Council Regulations 25 of 2002, concerning trust regulations, amend the part concerning Oxford University Ice Hockey Project Endowment Fund as follows (new text underlined, deleted text struck through):

‘4. The administration of the Fund, and the application of its income, shall be the responsibility of the Sports Strategic Sub-Committee of the Education Committee, which may appoint a board to manage the Fund on its behalf of a board of management comprised of majority University representatives with a representative appointed by the Club and a representative appointed by the Club’s alumni body. All members of the board of management will be appointed subject to the approval of the Sports Strategic Sub-Committee.

(c) Changes to Regulations for the Francis Napier Fund

Explanatory Note

The changes to these regulations are made to take into account the disestablishment of the previous oversight committee for this fund.

Text of Regulations

In Council Regulations 25 of 2002: Trust Regulations, amend the part concerning the Francis Napier Fund as follows (new text underlined, deleted text struck through):

3. The administration of the Fund, and the application of its capital and income, shall be the responsibility of the Student Life Subcommittee ~~Subcommittee for Student Health and Welfare.~~

(d) Establishment of the Insight Investment Fund

Explanatory Note

These new regulations are made to formalise the trust created by the receipt of endowment gifts to establish the Insight Investment Fund.

Text of Regulations

In Council Regulations 25 of 2002, insert regulations for the Insight Investment Fund as follows:

‘Insight Investment Fund

1. The University receives with gratitude gifts to be held as permanent endowment on the trusts declared in this regulation. Further money or property may be paid or transferred to the University as either expendable or permanent endowment to be held on the same trusts. The assets so held will be known as the Insight Investment Fund (“the Fund”).

2. The University shall retain as permanent endowment those of the assets in the Fund which are contributed on the express understanding that they are to be treated as permanent endowment (“the Permanent Endowment”).

3. The University shall (a) apply the income of the Permanent Endowment; and (b) apply the income and, in its discretion, the capital of the remainder of the Fund, towards the provision of prizes to recognise outstanding research and service in support of the furtherance of greening finance (“the Prizes”).

4. The selection of Prize winners in each year shall be the responsibility of a prize panel (“the Prize Panel”) nominated by the holder of the post maintained by the Lombard Odier Sustainable Finance Fund (“the Post”), from time to time, and subject to the approval of the Head of the School of Geography and the Environment. If the Post is vacant or the University ceases to appoint to the Post for any reason, the selection of candidates for the Prizes shall be the responsibility of the Head of the School of Geography and the Environment.
5. The administration of the Fund, and the application of its income, shall be the responsibility of the Social Sciences Divisional Board.
6. The University may in its absolute discretion in the period ending 21 years from the date of this regulation, instead of applying the income of the Fund in any year, accumulate all or any part of such income by investing it, and holding it as part of the capital of the Fund. The University may apply the whole or any part of such accumulated income in any subsequent year as if it were income of the Fund arising in the then current year.
7. The University shall have power to pay out of the capital or the income of the Fund all costs of and incidental to the creation of the Fund, and the management and administration of the Fund.
8. The University may exercise any of its corporate powers in the management and administration of the Fund in so far as those powers are not inconsistent with these regulations.
9. These regulations shall be deemed to be Trust Regulations under the provisions of Part D of Statute XVI.
10. Subject to regulation 11, Council may amend, repeal or add to these regulations in accordance with Part D of Statute XVI, but no amendment is valid if it would cause the Fund to:
- (1) cease to be exclusively charitable according to the law of England and Wales; or
  - (2) be outside the objects of the University.
11. Any amendment to regulation 3 is an amendment to the main objects of the Fund for the purposes of Part D of Statute XVI and must be approved both by Congregation of the University and subsequently by His Majesty in Council.’

(e) Establishment of the Hsu-Tang Library of Chinese Literature Fund

Explanatory Note

These new regulations are made to formalise the trust created by the receipt of endowment gifts to establish the Hsu-Tang Library of Chinese Literature Fund.

Text of Regulations

In Council Regulations 25 of 2002, insert regulations for the Hsu-Tang Library of Chinese Literature Fund as follows:

‘Hsu-Tang Library of Chinese Literature Fund

1. The University receives with gratitude gifts to be held as expendable endowment on the trusts declared in this regulation. Further money or property may be paid or transferred to the University as either expendable or permanent endowment to be held on the same trusts. The assets so held will be known as the Hsu-Tang Library of Chinese Literature Fund (“the Fund”).
2. The University shall retain as permanent endowment those of the assets in the Fund (if any) which are contributed on the express understanding that they are to be treated as permanent endowment (“the Permanent Endowment”).
3. The University shall (a) apply the income of the Permanent Endowment; and (b) apply the income and, in its discretion, the capital of the remainder of the Fund, towards establishing and maintaining the Hsu-Tang Library of Chinese Literature at Oxford University Press (“the Library”).
4. The Library shall comprise a bilingual series of classical Chinese literature, ranging from philosophical and religious literature to poetry, fiction, and distinctively literary genres of the Chinese tradition, and including new translation of major masterpieces, with added features to enhance the depth of the readers’ understanding of the work and its legacy.
5. The administration of the Fund, and the application of its income, shall be the responsibility of the Chief Executive Officer of Oxford University Press accountable to Finance Committee of the Delegates of the Press.
6. The University may in its absolute discretion in the period ending 21 years from the date of this regulation, instead of applying the income of the Fund in any year, accumulate all or any part of such income by investing it, and holding it as part of the capital of the Fund. The University may apply the whole or any part of such accumulated income in any subsequent year as if it were income of the Fund arising in the then current year.

7. The University shall have power to pay out of the capital or the income of the Fund all costs of and incidental to the creation of the Fund, and the management and administration of the Fund.
8. The University may exercise any of its corporate powers in the management and administration of the Fund in so far as those powers are not inconsistent with these regulations.
9. These regulations shall be deemed to be Trust Regulations under the provisions of Part D of Statute XVI.
10. Subject to regulation 11, Council may amend, repeal or add to these regulations in accordance with Part D of Statute XVI, but no amendment is valid if it would cause the Fund to:
- (1) cease to be exclusively charitable according to the law of England and Wales; or
  - (2) be outside the objects of the University.
11. Any amendment to regulation 3 is an amendment to the main objects of the Fund for the purposes of Part D of Statute XVI and must be approved both by Congregation of the University and subsequently by His Majesty in Council.’
- #### (f) Creation of regulations for Engineering Department Prize & Bursary Fund
- ##### Explanatory Note
- These regulations establish the Engineering Department Prize & Bursary Fund for the advancement of education and learning at, or in connection with, the Department of Engineering Science, primarily through the award of prizes and scholarships. It is intended that by resolution of Council, as trustee, under the Charities Act 2011, the Sheppee Fund, Medtronic Biomedical Engineering Scholarship Fund, Janson Prize in Electronic Communications, and the Motz Prize in Electrical Engineering shall be transferred and administered as part of this new trust fund.

Text of Regulations

In Council Regulations 25 of 2002, concerning trusts, insert a new section as follows:

‘Engineering Department Prize & Bursary Fund

Ten pounds and such further money or property as may be paid or transferred to be held by the University on the same trusts shall be held together as part of the Engineering Department Prize & Bursary Fund (“the Fund”), which shall be held on the trusts declared in this regulation.

The Fund includes transfers from the Sheppee Fund, Medtronic Biomedical Engineering Scholarship Fund, Janson Prize in Electronic Communications and the Motz Prize in Electrical Engineering<sup>1</sup>.

The University shall retain as permanent endowment those of the assets in the Fund which are contributed on the express understanding that they are to be treated as permanent endowment (“the Permanent Endowment”).

The University shall (a) apply the income of the Permanent Endowment; and (b) apply the income and, in its discretion, the capital of the remainder of the Fund (if any), towards the advancement of education and learning at, or in connection with, the Faculty of Engineering, primarily through the award of prizes and scholarships.

The administration of the Fund, and the application of its income, shall be the responsibility of the Engineering Science Departmental Committee, which may make and amend Standing Orders consistent with these Regulations governing the administration of the Fund and the application of its income.

The University shall have power to pay out of the capital or the income of the Fund all costs of and incidental to the creation of the Fund and the management and administration of the Fund.

<sup>1</sup> Approval of paragraph 2 of the Trust Regulation is conditional on Council resolving to transfer the said funds into the new Engineering Department Prize & Bursary Fund and the Charity Commission registering no objections to the transfer.

The University may exercise any of its corporate powers in the management and administration of the Fund in so far as those powers are not inconsistent with these regulations.

Subject to regulation 8, Council may amend, repeal or add to these regulations in accordance with Part D of Statute XVI, but no amendment is valid if it would cause the Fund to:

- (1) cease to be exclusively charitable according to the law of England and Wales; or
- (2) be outside the objects of the University.

Any amendment to regulation 3 is an amendment to the main objects of the Fund for the purposes of Part D of Statute XVI and must be approved both by Congregation of the University and subsequently by His Majesty in Council.<sup>2</sup>

In Council Regulations 25 of 2002, concerning trusts, delete sections relating to: the Sheppee Fund; Medtronic Biomedical Engineering Scholarship Fund; Janson Prize in Electronic Communications; and the Motz Prize in Electrical Engineering.
