Consultative notices

Consultation on the government White Paper: invitation for comments

The government's White Paper on higher education, entitled Students at the Heart of the System, was published on the website of the Department for Business, Innovation and Skills on 28 June. It may be accessed at <http://discuss.bis.gov.uk/hereform>. The government invites comments on the overall policy direction set out in the White Paper and the impact that this will have on the higher education sector through a consultation period which opened on 28 June and will close on 20 September 2011. This notice sets out the process for submitting comments to a small group established by the Planning and Resource Allocation Committee to formulate the University's response to the White Paper (see further below).

The government's consultation period clearly poses problems for the collegiate University given that it falls directly over the long vacation when the usual decision-making committee structure will not be operating. The Planning and Resource Allocation Committee has therefore agreed to establish a small group to draft the formal response. This group will be chaired by the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Education), with the other members being the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Planning and Resources), the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Research), the Junior or Senior Proctor, two members of Council directly elected by Congregation, one representative from each division, one Conference representative and an OUSU representative. The membership of the group will be posted on the PRAS website at www.admin.ox.ac.uk/pras/oxonly/whitepaper once finalised.

Recognising the constraints imposed by the government's timetable, divisions, colleges and individual members of Congregation are invited to provide their comments to the group. Comments should be sent to whitepaper@admin.ox.ac.uk, preferably by 31 July and at the latest by 15 August. Comments will not be published but will be taken into account by the group when drafting the University's response. The Vice-Chancellor will approve the response by the deadline of 20 September, following which it will be shared with the collegiate University in the usual way.
