Council and Main Committees

Council of the University

Changes in Regulations

Council has made the following changes in regulations, to come into effect on 23 November.

Professor of Poetry

Explanatory Note

Council has agreed a number of changes to the terms and conditions of the Professorship of Poetry, including the introduction of a college association for the post, revisions to the duties of the post-holder, and changes to the terms under which the post-holder is elected and the length of office. The revisions to the regulations proposed below enact those various changes.

Text of Regulations

1 In regulation 6 of Council Regulations 8 of 2002, delete existing paragraph (1) and substitute (new text underlined, deleted text struck through):

'(1) No candidate shall have votes reckoned to him or her at any election unless the candidate has been nominated in writing, not later than 4 pm on the forty-second day before that fixed for the election, by not fewer than twelve fifty members of Convocation.'

2 In Section III of Council Regulations 24 of 2002, concerning academic and other posts, delete existing § 274 and substitute as follows (new text underlined, deleted text struck through):

'§ 274. Professor of Poetry on the Foundation of Henry Birkhead'

1. The post of Professor of Poetry shall be associated with All Souls College.

2. The Professor of Poetry shall deliver an inaugural lecture.

3. The Professor of Poetry shall deliver a Public Lecture in each term.

4. In addition to a Public Lecture, the Professor of Poetry will normally be required to offer one more termly event.

25. The Professor shall be elected by Convocation and shall hold office for five four years from the first day of the term following the term in which he or she was elected, and shall not be re-eligible.

6. The single criterion for eligibility shall be that candidates be of sufficient distinction to be able to fulfil the duties of the post.

37. The provisions of Sect I, § 4, cl 3, shall not apply to the Professorship of Poetry.'

Planning and Resource Allocation Committee of Council

Changes in Regulations

The Planning and Resource Allocation Committee of Council (PRAC) has made the following changes in regulations, to come into effect on 23 November.

Establishment of Professorship of Electrical Engineering

Explanatory Note

These changes establish the Professorship of Electrical Engineering. These regulations were approved by the division and by PRAC in 2009, but by oversight failed to be promulgated at that time.

Text of Regulations

1 In SCHEDULE A of Council Regulations 3 of 2004, concerning statutory professorships, after 'Professor of Control Engineering' insert:

'Professor of Electrical Engineering'.

2 In Sect III of Council Regulations 24 of 2002, concerning individual professorships, insert new § 78 as follows and renumber existing §§ 78–327 as §§ 79–328:

'§ 78 Professor of Electrical Engineering'

1. There shall be a Professor of Electrical Engineering, who shall undertake research in and shall lecture and give instruction in that subject and generally promote its study in the University.

2. The professor shall be elected by an electoral board consisting of:

(1) the Vice-Chancellor, or, if the head of the college specified in (2) of this clause is Vice-Chancellor, a person appointed by Council;

(2) the head of the college to which the professorship shall be for the time being allocated by Council under any decree in that behalf, or if the head is unable or unwilling to act, a person appointed by the governing body of the college;

(3) a person appointed by the governing body of the college specified in (2) of this clause;

(4)–(5) two persons appointed by Council;

(6)–(9) four persons appointed by the Mathematical, Physical and Life Sciences Board.

4. The professor shall be subject to the General Provisions of the decree concerning the duties of professors and to those Particular Provisions of the same decree which are applicable to this chair.'

Council of the University

Congregation

12 November

Degree by Resolution

This content has been removed as it contains personal information protected under the Data Protection Act.

Arrangements for the meeting

Attendance at the meeting is open to members of Congregation and to nominated representatives of the Oxford University Student Union (OUSU) as agreed in advance by the Vice-Chancellor. Admittance to the Theatre will be on the production of a valid University card and will be on a first-come, first-served basis (places will be reserved for scheduled speakers). The doors of the Sheldonian Theatre will open at 1.45 pm.

The Vice-Chancellor has decided that the wearing of gowns shall be optional on this occasion.

Advance notice by speakers

Those wishing to speak at the meeting will be expected to limit their contributions to five minutes. As the meeting is expected to close by 4.30 pm, it may not be possible to call all those who wish to speak. If you wish to speak at the meeting, you are asked to indicate this intention in advance by emailing congregation.meeting@admin.ox.ac.uk. It would be helpful if members of Congregation intending to speak would explain briefly (in no more than 25 words) what issues they wish to cover. Names of those who have indicated a wish to speak, together with the issues they wish to raise, will be published on the Congregation website (www.ox.ac.uk/congregation-meeting). This sharing of information may be of use both to other speakers and to those considering attending; it will also be used to provide structure to the order in which speakers are called. Speakers are asked to provide their information as soon as possible, and by 10 am on Monday, 12 November.

12 November, at the latest, if they wish to be scheduled to speak. If time permits, those who have not indicated in advance an intention to speak will still be free to do so. The Vice-Chancellor will also invite two nominated representatives of OUSU to speak.

Transcript

It is intended that a transcript¹ of the meeting will be published in the Gazette on 22 November and, before then, on the University website (www.ox.ac.uk/congregation-meeting). It is also intended to make a downloadable recording¹ available on the same site. As a result of time constraints, it will not be possible to check the report of the proceedings with individual speakers before publication. Speakers are therefore asked to provide their written texts, if available, to Mr P Burns (Council Secretariat) on the day of the meeting, or to email them to congregation@admin.ox.ac.uk by 5 pm on Wednesday, 14 November.

¹The transcript and recording may be edited for legal reasons.

Congregation

27 November 2 pm

Presentation of Vice-Chancellor's Oration

The Oration delivered by the Vice-Chancellor on 2 October will be presented and may be discussed.

[¶]The Oration has been published as Supplement (1) to Gazette No 5000.

Note on procedures in Congregation

[¶]Business in Congregation is conducted in accordance with Congregation Regulations 2 of 2002 (www.admin.ox.ac.uk/statutes/regulations/529-122.shtml). A printout of these regulations, or of any statute or other regulations, is available from the Council Secretariat on request. A member of Congregation seeking advice on questions relating to its procedures, other than elections, should contact Mr P Burns at the University Offices, Wellington Square (telephone: (2)70193; email: paul.burns@admin.ox.ac.uk); questions relating to elections should be directed to the Elections Officer, Ms S L S Mulvihill (telephone: (2)80463; email: elections.office@admin.ox.ac.uk).

The libraries and their future: topic for discussion

Members of Congregation may be aware from the Congregation webpages that a resolution concerning the libraries was received by the Registrar on 6 July 2012 (the text of the resolution can be found at www.ox.ac.uk/congregation-meeting).

As indicated in the most recent Council briefing note from the Vice-Chancellor (www.admin.ox.ac.uk/council/201112/vcbriefingforcouncilmeetingon9july2012), it had been planned to put the resolution on the agenda of the Congregation meeting on 16 October (week 2). However, following discussion with representatives acting on behalf of the signatories and subsequently at Council, it has been agreed that the proposed debate should be replaced by a Congregation Discussion on the topic of 'The libraries and their future'. This Discussion will take place at the Congregation meeting on 13 November (week 6).

As a consequence of this agreement, the resolution received on 6 July 2012 shall lapse, in accordance with regulation 3.21 of Congregation Regulations 2 of 2002 (www.admin.ox.ac.uk/statutes/regulations/529-122a.shtml#_Toc28141440).

Pocket Diary

SURVEY

The Pocket Diary is published by OUP at the beginning of every academic year, and the text is prepared partly by OUP and partly by the Gazette editorial team. We are considering whether it is time to update the content and/or layout of the University information contained in the Pocket Diary to make it more relevant and accessible for those who use it, both in and outside the University. We are concerned that the University sections of the Diary are no longer serving the needs of its readership, and are seeking the opinions of current Diary users.

The survey is online at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/bris.ac.uk/oxford/pocketdiary> and will be open from 8 November until midnight on 7 December. It's a very short survey, and respondents can remain entirely anonymous; most of the questions are optional. We would welcome any feedback Gazette readers would like to give on this subject.

Department for Continuing Education

OPEN DAY

The Department for Continuing Education is hosting an Open Day on 14 November. It's a day of free learning opportunities – lectures, workshops, information sessions and walking tours. There are more than 25 events across a range of subjects, including Creative Writing, History of Art, Literature, Languages, History and Local History, Archaeology, Philosophy, Economics, Maths, Biology and the Health Sciences.

Most events take place over lunchtime and in the early evening, and events are being kept short in the hope that staff of the University will attend more than one. We're also offering a sandwich lunch, an evening wine reception, and the opportunity to win free classes.

The Open Day takes place at Rewley House, 1 Wellington Square. Full descriptions of all events, together with registration details, are available on the Continuing Education website at: www.conted.ox.ac.uk/openday.

1. Advertisements are accepted for publication at the discretion of the editor of the Gazette.

Note. When an advertisement is received online, an acknowledgement will be emailed automatically to the email address provided by the advertiser. The sending of this acknowledgement does not constitute an acceptance of the advertisement or an undertaking to publish the advertisement in the Gazette.

2. The right of the Gazette to edit an advertisement, in particular to abridge when necessary, is reserved.

3. Advertisements must be accompanied by the correct payment, and must be received by the deadline stated above. No refund can be made for cancellation after the acceptance of advertisements.

4. Once an advertisement has been submitted for publication, no change to the text can be accepted.

5. Voucher copies or cuttings cannot be supplied.

Charges

6. Two separate charging arrangements will apply, for commercial and private advertisers. The rates applicable at any time will be published regularly in the Gazette, and may be obtained upon enquiry. The rates, and guidance on applicability of each rate, are also available online.

The editor's decision regarding applicability of these rates to an individual advertiser will be final.

Disclaimer

7. The University of Oxford and Oxford University Press accept no responsibility for the content of any advertisement published in the Gazette. Readers should note that the inclusion of any advertisement in no way implies approval or recommendation of either the terms of any offer contained in it or of the advertiser by the University of Oxford or Oxford University Press.

Advertisers' Warranty and Indemnity

13. The advertiser warrants:

(i) Not to discriminate against any respondents to an advertisement published in the Gazette on the basis of their gender, sexual orientation, marital or civil partner status, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, disability or age, or pregnancy.

(ii) That the advertisement does not contravene any current legislation, rules, regulations or applicable codes of practice.

(iii) That it is not in any way illegal or defamatory or a breach of copyright or an infringement of any other person's intellectual property or other rights.

You are advised to view our full Terms and Conditions of acceptance of advertisements. Submission of an advertisement implies acceptance of our terms and conditions, which may be found at www.ox.ac.uk/gazette/classifiedadvertising, and may also be obtained on application to Gazette Advertisements, Public Affairs Directorate, University Offices, Wellington Square, Oxford OX1 2JD.

Publication in online Gazette

16. Unless the advertiser stipulates otherwise, all advertisements will be published in the online Gazette in addition to the printed Gazette. At the time of submission of an advertisement, the advertiser may stipulate that he or she does not wish the advertisement to be included in the online Gazette. This stipulation: (i) must be made at the time of submission of the advertisement; (ii) cannot later be altered; (iii) will apply to all instances of publication of an advertisement arranged at the time of submission of that advertisement. Please note that advertisements form part of the online Gazette as published and cannot be removed or amended after publication.

Miscellaneous

Concert

Oxford Harmonic Society's winter concert.

7.30 pm, 24 November in Oxford Town Hall. Fauré's Requiem is a choral favourite, a beautiful and haunting piece that was described early on as a 'lullaby of death'. A rarely performed jewel, Saint-Saëns's Christmas Oratorio is more outwardly cheerful, and pays tribute to J S Bach's work of the same name. Tickets : Oxford Playhouse (01865 305305) or on the door. For more information: www.oxfordharmonicsoc.org.

Car lease sought

Australian colleagues (2 professors and their 2 sons) are visiting Oxford on sabbatical from Jan-Jul. They are wondering if someone might have a car they could lease for the period. Please contact: kate.nation@psy.ox.ac.uk.

Over 60? Want to boost your brain function? The Department of Psychiatry is conducting an NHS-funded study looking at preventing cognitive decline in ageing, developing new methods of slowing effects of ageing on the brain, and developing treatments for mild cognitive impairment. After a baseline assessment, you will undergo 4 weeks of computer-based cognitive training aiming to improve all aspects of higher brain function. Four weeks later, you will have 2 brain scans to measure changes in brain function. Anyone aged 60 and above and fluent in English may be eligible to participate. Compensation for time and travel expenses. For information: cha@psych.ox.ac.uk or 01865 613197.

Do you care for someone who uses telecare equipment at home? The AKTIVE project is trying to find out how telecare - including pendant alarms, motion sensors and fall detectors - affects older people and those who care for them. We would like to interview carers in Oct-Dec to find out what it's like to care for an older person and whether telecare makes an impact. We can either call you at a time convenient for you or host you at the Institute of Population Ageing on Banbury Rd. If you have experience of telecare equipment, we would like to hear from you. We will provide a gift of £20. If you think you can tell us about your experiences of care and telecare, please contact our research team on: 01865 612816/kate.hamblin@ageing.ox.ac.uk.
