Council of the University

Nomination of external members of Council

Under regulation 9.3 of Congregation Regulations 2 of 2002, the nominations below shall be deemed to be approved unless not later than 4pm on 23 November the Registrar has received from not fewer than 20 members of Congregation a written request for a postal ballot to be taken in respect of that nomination.

Approval of the nomination of Charles Harman as an external member of Council

The nomination by Council, under the provisions of section 4 (7)–(11) of Statute VI, of Charles Harman as an external member of Council for four years from Hilary term 2024, is submitted for approval.

Notes on the nominated external member of Council

Charles Harman has over 30 years' experience in a variety of commercial and banking roles. He graduated in Philosophy, Politics and Economics (Magdalen, 1984) and joined Credit Suisse First Boston as a graduate recruit, where he was appointed as Managing Director in 1993. Following this he worked in other investment banking roles, particularly focusing on emerging markets. He joined Cazenove in 2001 as Managing Director, advising a range of FTSE 100 companies, and, following the acquisition of the firm by JP Morgan, was made Head of UK Investment Banking at JP Morgan. In 2011 he was appointed Chief Executive Officer of BXR Partners, an emerging markets investment group, where he was responsible for successfully realigning the firm's investment business across several new sectors and geographical regions, including Africa and South America. In 2015 he returned to JP Morgan as Vice Chairman and has responsibility for some of the firm's largest clients from the UK and South Africa. Charles is also a business ambassador and Chair of the London Leadership Team of United Purpose, an international development charity, and Chair of Peters, Fraser & Dunlop, a UK-based literary agency and publisher. He has been a member of Council since Hilary term 2018 and also serves on the Finance Committee and the Committee to Review the Salaries of Senior University Officers and chairs the Nominations Committee.

Approval of the nomination of Sir Chris Deverell as an external member of Council

The nomination by Council, under the provisions of section 4 (7)–(11) of Statute VI, of Sir Chris Deverell as an external member of Council for four years from Hilary term 2024, is submitted for approval.

Notes on the nominated external member of Council

Sir Chris Deverell has held leadership roles throughout his 40-year military career, which ended in September 2019. He was commissioned into the Second Royal Tank Regiment in 1979. After graduating in 1982 with a degree in Politics, Philosophy and Economics (Mansfield), he saw regimental service in Northern Ireland, Germany, Belize and Cyprus. He was appointed a Member of the Order of the British Empire in the 1991 Birthday Honours, and went on to command of the Joint Chemical, Biological, Radiation and Nuclear Regiment. He commanded 4th Armoured Brigade in Iraq and Germany from January 2005. Appointed Knight Commander of the Order of the Bath (KCB) in the 2015 New Year Honours, he was promoted on 5 April 2016 to the rank of 4* General, as one of the UK Chiefs of Staff. As the head of the Joint Forces Command he was accountable for around 25,000 people and an annual budget of over £5 billion. His responsibilities also included the delivery of military education through the Defence Academy. Having left the Army, he is now pursuing a portfolio career, having been contracted as a Venture Partner to a US (west coast) venture capital company that invests in start-ups involved in cyber security. He will also be advisor to two other US companies: a start-up that provides software solutions in defence and security, and a scale-up that provides near-real-time alerting in multiple sectors. He has been a board member at a senior level in the public sector over the last ten years, involved in major financial and operational decisions affecting the foreign, defence and security policies of the nation, and the lives and well-being of many thousands of people.

He has been a member of Council since Hilary term 2020 and also serves on the Planning and Resource Allocation Committee.

Approval of the nomination of Wendy Becker as an external member of Council

The nomination by Council, under the provisions of section 4 (7)–(11) of Statute VI, of Wendy Becker as an external member of Council for four years from Michaelmas term 2024, is submitted for approval.

Notes on the nominated external member of Council

As a Chair, senior board member and advisor, Wendy Becker works globally with management teams and organisations, helping relationships between consumers and technology. She has vast experience in strategy, brand marketing, technology and design from her senior leadership roles, as well as diverse board and trustee leadership positions. Wendy is Chair of Logitech International SA. She also serves on the boards of Sony Corporation, Great Portland Estates, Oxford University Press and Saïd Business School, providing advice and sharing her expertise across a range of board committees. She was previously on the Whitbread and Ocado boards and held the role of Deputy Chairman at Cancer Research UK. Wendy previously served as CEO at Jack Wills (the clothing manufacturer and retailer) being promoted from COO after turning around the firm's historic operational difficulties and opening new growth avenues. She previously worked in the telecoms industry with Vodafone, sitting on the Global Executive Committee as Global CMO, and with TalkTalk as Managing Director. In 1993 Wendy joined McKinsey and Company, becoming a Partner in 1998 and working out of both San Francisco and London for 15 years. At McKinsey she led the UK Consumer & Retail Practice and advised many global clients on embracing the digital world in their corporate strategies. Wendy started her career in brand management at Procter & Gamble after gaining a BA in Economics from Dartmouth College. She also holds an MBA from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business. Wendy has been named by the FT as one of the 'Top 50 Women to Watch in International Business' and has been a finalist in the Sunday Times NED of the year awards.

She has been a member of Council since Michaelmas term 2020 and chairs the Committee to Review Donations and Research Funding.

Elections

Contested election 23 November

The nomination period for the elections below closed at 4pm on 26 October.

Divisional Boards

MEDICAL SCIENCES BOARD

- One person from among the externally-funded research staff who are members of the Faculty of Biochemistry, the Faculty of Clinical Medicine, the Faculty of Physiological Sciences and the Faculty of Psychological Studies, elected jointly by the members of the Faculty of Biochemistry, the Faculty of Clinical Medicine, the Faculty of Physiological Sciences and the Faculty of Psychological Studies to serve until the start of MT 2025.

The following nominations have been received:

Professor Nele Demeyere, MSc KU Leuven, PhD Birm, Faculty of Psychological Studies (Nuffield Department of Clinical Neurosciences)

Nominated by:

Helen Christian, St Anne's, Faculty of Physiological Sciences

Masud Husain, New College, Faculty of Physiological Sciences

Katharine Smith, Faculty of Clinical Medicine

Kevin Talbot, Pembroke, Faculty of Clinical Medicine

Kate Watkins, St Anne's, Faculty of Psychological Studies

This election will be contested and the result determined by e-ballot of the members of the above-named faculties of the Medical Sciences Division. An email with further instructions will be sent to eligible voters on Wednesday 8 November, using the email addresses provided in the electronic register of Congregation (NB with few exceptions, notably clinical staff, this will be the work address ending 'ox.ac.uk'). Candidates' statements will be published online and in this issue of the Gazette. Voters may wish to read these statements before completing their electronic vote. The voting period will close at 4pm on Thursday, 23 November.

Candidate statement

I have been an externally funded researcher most of my academic career, from initial postdoctoral positions onto moving to a Principal Investigator role with external medical charity funding from the Stroke Association in 2015 and 2019 and now holding a senior research fellowship funded by an NIHR advanced fellowship award. I was Director of Undergraduate admissions at EP (2016–2022), and in that position served on the EP departmental Teaching Policy Committee and ADCOM over those 6 years. I moved from Experimental Psychology to NDCN in 2022, thereby now having experience in two of the departments within MSD. Whilst the MSD board rightly has representation from some of the most senior members of the division, I believe I could add valuable new perspectives as a relatively early stage Principal Investigator.

The research reputation of our division and university depends in large part on externally funded researchers, who seem to experience both the best and worst parts of being in academia: the intellectual freedom to focus on truly valuable and important medical research with the insecurity of short term contracts and fixed term positions. It is key that the voices of externally funded research staff are represented at all levels of governance in the university, and I would be honoured to be that voice on the Medical Sciences Divisional board.

Professor Philip W Fowler, MA MSc Camb, PhD UCL, Faculty of Clinical Medicine (Experimental Medicine, Nuffield Department of Medicine)

Nominated by:

Christiana Allen, Faculty of Clinical Medicine
Frances Ashcroft, Trinity, Faculty of Physiological
Sciences
Philip C Biggin, Lady Margaret Hall, Faculty of Biochemistry
David Eyre, Faculty of Clinical Medicine
Syma Khalid, St Anne's, Faculty of Biochemistry
Elena Seiradake, Somerville, Faculty of Biochemistry
Nicole Stoesser, Faculty of Clinical Medicine
A Sarah Walker, Faculty of Clinical Medicine

Candidate statement

Oxford can be a confusing complex place with many roles devolved to departments and divisions. Having been in the Medical Sciences Division for 17 years I've experienced many of them; first as a Postdoc in Biochemistry for ten years, then in NDM as a URL and latterly an Associate Professor based at the John Radcliffe Hospital. Before moving to Oxford I obtained an undergraduate degree in Physics then a PhD in Chemistry; an unusual yet increasingly typical path taken by biomedical researchers. Furthermore, I've lectured, tutored, examined, supervised DPhils, sat on committees and helped launch a start-up company and my research has spanned molecular simulation, citizen science, machine learning, genetics and antimicrobial resistance.

The Medical Sciences Board has a wide range of functions and powers, including developing and proposing strategic plans for the Division as a whole. Were I to be elected to the MSD Board from the constituency of externally-funded research staff I would seek to bring my interdisciplinary perspective which, I hope, would complement the extensive experience and expertise the Board already has.
