

Humanities Divisional Board

Approved at the meeting of Undergraduate Studies Committee on 9 May 2022.

Approved by the Division on 14 June 2022

Honour School of Classics and Modern Languages

Brief note about nature of change: standard wording for Year Abroad; clarification of options.

Effective date

For students starting the degree in MT 2019; for first examination in TT 2023.

Location of change

In Examination Regulations 2019-20: citation numbers 1.9, 1.19 and 1.108.

^{1.9} ~~Candidates will be expected to carry out during this year abroad such work as their society may require. It is strongly recommended that candidates should apply through the Central Bureau for Educational Visits and Exchanges for an Assistantship, where these are available, and should accept one if offered. Candidates who are not able to obtain an Assistantship should during their year abroad follow a course or courses in an institution or institutions approved by their society, or should spend their time in such other circumstances as are acceptable to their society. Candidates will agree with their College Tutor in advance of their year abroad an independent course of study to be followed during that period.~~
Candidates should during this year abroad undertake a programme of activity acceptable to their college or society. They will also be expected to carry out during this period such academic work as their society may require. Candidates will agree with their College Tutor in advance of their year abroad an independent course of study to be followed during that period.
