В

- ^{1.7}Candidates will be examined in accordance with the examination regulations set out below.
- ¹⁸They will also be required to spend, after their matriculation, a year of residence in an appropriate country or countries, and to provide on their entry form for the examination a certificate that they have done this, signed by the Head or by a tutor of their society. Candidates wishing to be dispensed from the requirement to undertake a year of residence abroad must apply in writing to the Chair of the Medieval and Modern Languages Board, 41 Wellington Square, Oxford, OX1 2JF, stating their reasons for requesting dispensation and enclosing a letter of support from their society.

- ^{1.9}Candidates will be expected to carry out during this year abroad such work as their society may require. It is strongly recommended that candidates should apply through the Central Bureau for Educational Visits and Exchanges for an Assistantship, where these are available, and should accept one if offered. Candidates who are not able to obtain an Assistantship should during their year abroad follow a course or courses in an institution or institutions approved by their society, or should spend their time in such other circumstances as are acceptable to their society. Candidates will agree with their College Tutor in advance of their year abroad an independent course of study to be followed during that period.
- ^{1.10}Except in a Special Subject or an alternative to a Special Subject, a candidate shall offer one modern language and its literature only except that candidates offering Ancient Greek may offer the subject Modern Greek Poetry, and all candidates may offer the subject Byzantine Literature as specified in the regulations below, if and only if they are not offering Medieval and Modern Greek as their modern language.
- ^{1.11}Any candidate may be examined viva voce.
- ^{1.12}Oral Examination: as specified for the Honour School of Modern Languages.
- ^{1.13}In every case where, under the regulations for the school, candidates have any choice between one or more papers or subjects, every candidate shall give notice to the Registrar not later than the Friday in the fourth week of Michaelmas Full Term preceding the examination of all the papers and subjects being so offered.
- ^{1.14}Candidates offering two papers both of which involve the study of the same author or authors, may not make the same text or texts the principal subject of an answer in both the papers.
- ^{1.15}All candidates must offer eight subjects as specified below and may also offer an Additional Subject as specified at no.9.
- 1.161. Honour School of Modern Languages, Paper I.
- 1.172. Honour School of Modern Languages, Papers IIA and IIB.
- ^{1.18}3. Honour School of Modern Languages, one paper chosen from Papers VI, VII, or VIII (VII not available in German).
- ^{1.19}4. Honour School of Modern Languages, one paper chosen from Papers IV, V, IX, X, XI, or XII or XIV.
