^{1.8}8. Candidates will propose the extended essay topics under clauses 6 and 7 in consultation with the relevant course tutor and their supervisor (if they are different). The four proposed essay titles must be submitted for approval by the Chair of Examiners by noon on Tuesday Friday of week 8 of Hilary term.

^{1.9}8 9. Candidates will complete a dissertation of no more than 15,000 words (~~excluding bibliography and appendices, but including notes~~) on a topic agreed with their supervisor. The topic of the dissertation must be related to the stream candidates are following but clearly distinct from the topics covered by pre-set essays submitted by the candidate under clauses 6 and 7. The proposed title of the dissertation must be submitted for approval by the Chair of Examiners by 12 noon on Friday Tuesday of week 86 of Hilary term. The dissertation must be submitted by the last Wednesday of August in the year in which the examination is taken.

^{1.10}9 10. Candidates must upload their Archaeological Principles' portfolio, four extended essays, and dissertation to the University approved online assessment platform by the specified deadlines. Technical information on the requirements for online submissions is provided in the Course Handbook.

^{1.11}~~10~~ 11. Candidates must present themselves for an oral examination if required by the examiners.

^{1.12}~~11~~ 12. In the case of failure of the Archaeological Principles' portfolio, candidates will have the opportunity to resubmit a revised portfolio within three weeks of publication of the fail, on a date to be specified by the Chair of Examiners. Candidates who ~~fail the written examination~~, any of the take-home essays, extended essays, or the dissertation will be permitted to re-sit the examination, or resubmit the take-home essay(s), and/or extended essay(s) and/or dissertation, on one further occasion only, not later than one year after the first attempt.
