Effective date

For students starting the course in MT 2022-2023

For first examination in Trinity 23

Detail of change (as underlined)

^{1.9} 6. Each candidate in consultation with their supervisor shall notify the director of the course of their intention to offer a written assignment for a lecture course not later than the deadlines as specified in the Course Handbook. Candidates must offer at least four courses from among those available in Michaelmas and Hilary Terms. No candidate may offer more than four courses in one term. Any exceptions must be approved by the Course Director. There will be a written assignment for each course. The topics in the assignment will be suggested by the relevant lecturer not later than the Friday of eighth week of the term during which the course is given. These topics will be sufficient to offer options appropriate to the course. The choice of topics will vary from year to year. Completed assignments must be submitted not later than noon on the date specified by the examiners in the Course Handbook, together with a signed statement that the work offered for assessment is the candidate's own.

Explanatory Notes

This examination regulation change will ensure students aim to have already met the full course requirement from the first two terms and complete the dissertation in Trinity Term.
