Title of Programme/ Name of Regulation [if general]]
Master of Studies in Global and Imperial History

Brief note about nature of change: Amendment to assessment mode description for options, as this needs to follow what the host department sets

Location of change
https://examregs.admin.ox.ac.uk/Regulation?code=mosigandimpehist&srchYear=2021&srcTerm=1&year=2021&term=1

Effective date
For students starting from MT 2021

Detail of change
1.43. The final examination shall comprise (i) one extended essay of 4,000-5,000 words based on the programme’s Concepts and Themes course, (ii) one extended essay of between 6,500 and 7,500 words each based on an Advanced Option, or other assessment as required by the relevant regulations where an Advanced Option is taken from another programme of study, and (iii) a dissertation of not more than 15,000 words.

1.51. During Michaelmas Term each candidate will attend core classes on concepts and themes in global and imperial history from CE 1400. The core classes will be assessed by an extended essay of between 4,000 and 5,000 words, which must be uploaded to the University approved online assessment platform by 12 noon on Monday of Week One of Hilary Term.

1.6 In Hilary Term candidates will take one Advanced Option. Details of available Advanced Options are published in the course handbook. Approval of an Advanced Option choice must be obtained from the programme convenor and the Director of Graduate Studies by Friday of Week 4 of Michaelmas Term. The Advanced Option essay must be uploaded to the University approved online assessment platform by 12 noon on Monday of Week 9 of Hilary Term. The essay should reflect the skills and understanding acquired by the candidate through... attending the Advanced Option classes. It may complement – but may not share significant content with – the dissertation.

Candidates wishing to take an Option paper from another programme offered by the History Faculty, and exceptionally, by other Faculties, may do so with the permission of the programme convenor, the person responsible for the delivery of the requested Option paper, and their supervisor. Such candidates will be assessed according to the regulations with respect to the form of assessment and deadlines governing that Option (i.e. the regulations of the programme under which the Option paper is offered), but the modes of assessment and deadlines for the other course elements of the programme for which the candidate is registered will remain in force.

Explanatory Notes

The Faculty has no control over the mode of assessments set by other departments running the option(s) students on this course may wish to follow. The change in the regulations text clarifies this matter.
