Detail of change

^{1.14}8. Assessment (f) will be the dissertation, which must be formatted as specified in the handbook for the MSt in Medieval Studies and accompanied by a short abstract which concisely summarises its scope and principal arguments, in about 300 words. The dissertation must be submitted to the University approved online assessment platform no later than 12 noon on ~~Monday~~ Tuesday of Week 9 of Trinity Term. ~~The dissertation must be accompanied by a short abstract which concisely summarises its scope and principal arguments, in about 300 words.~~

^{1.15}9. Assessments (a), (c), (d) and (e) must be formatted and submitted according to the specifications of the faculty that is providing the material being examined.

~~4-16~~ 10. Assessment (f) must be formatted and submitted as specified in the handbook for the MSt in Medieval Studies. The assessment must be submitted by uploading it to the University approved online assessment platform; no concomitant copy submission may be submitted, for any purpose. Electronic submissions must be received by the deadline; technical problems external to the online assessment platform will not be accepted as grounds for excusing lateness. Written work shall be submitted as word-processed files converted to PDF using the course coversheet as first page of the work, bearing on the front the candidate's examination number but neither their name nor the name of their college. Candidates must themselves retain a copy of each piece of work and must ensure that they receive the email confirming the submission and that the email is retained for future reference. Each submission of written work must be accompanied by a Declaration of Authorship from the candidate that it is their own work except where otherwise indicated, to be completed online at the same time as that of submission.

Explanatory Notes

As recommended by the University, deadlines for coursework submissions have been moved away from Monday or Friday. Other general tidying up.
