Detail of change

~~1.5 Candidates must make a written application for approval of the essay topic, to reach the Joint Standing Committee for Graduate Studies in Philosophical Theology not later than Monday of fifth week in Hilary Term. In cases where there is some uncertainty about the acceptability of the proposal, candidates are advised to submit their applications earlier if possible. All applications should be accompanied by a recommendation from the candidate's supervisor. The dissertation must be uploaded to the University approved online assessment platform by the Friday of eighth week in Trinity Term of the year in which the examinations are taken. Each submission will require the candidate to make a declaration stating that this is their own work. The candidate's name should not appear on the dissertation.~~
