

Medical Sciences Divisional BoardApproved by Nicholas Field on 13.05.22*Title of Programme/ Name of Regulation [if general]

Preliminary Examination in Graduate-entry Medicine

Brief note about nature of change: Minor amendment to assessmentLocation of change

<https://examregs.admin.ox.ac.uk/Regulation?code=peigradentrmedi&srchYear=2021&srchTerm=1&year=2020&term=1>

Effective dateFor students starting from MT 2022

And

For first examination from 2022-23Detail of change

1. Amend citation reference 1.19 as follows:

Paper 1A (~~one hour and forty five minutes~~) will be a computer-based assessment consisting of multiple-choice questions.

2. Amend citation reference 1.20 as follows:

Paper 1B (~~two and a half hours~~) will be in the format of problem-based questions requiring short answers.

3. Amend citation reference 1.21 as follows:

2. Paper 2: Ethics (~~one hour and forty five minutes~~)

4. Amend citation reference 1.23 as follows:

3. Paper 3: Data Interpretation (~~two hours~~)

Explanatory Notes

The durations of written / computer-based examination papers are being removed from the Examination Regulations, as this is not required in the Regulations. These details will be provided to students in the Examination Conventions.